20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three.” - Lk 12:50-52

FR. LEE BIBLE STUDY

In our next session, we will take a look at one of the more intriguing passages in St. Paul's letters, Romans 9-11. In these 3 chapters, Paul struggles with the rejection of Jesus as Messiah by most of the Jewish people, and works out in some detail how eventually both the Jewish people and the Gentiles (non-Jewish people) will come to acknowledge Christ as Messiah, Lord and Savior. Our session will go from 7:00-8:30 PM in the Great Hall on Thursday, August 28. Please read over the Romans chapters before that time. See you there!

Adoration Chapel

~ During Ordinary Time ~

It's August and you may be thinking, "Back to School!" Perhaps you might also think, "It's time to go Back to the Chapel as I didn't really make time for Jesus this summer."

Decide to go just one time and embrace the unexpected. Simply gaze at Our Lord in silence and let HIS presence surround you. Or share this prayer with Jesus:

God of wisdom and might, we praise you for the wonder of our being, for mind, body and spirit. Be with our children as they begin a new school year. Bless them and their teachers and staff.

Give them strength and grace as their bodies grow; wisdom and knowledge to their minds as they search for understanding; and peace and zeal to their hearts. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EARTH CARE NEWS

We might think our daily home habits are harmless, but some quietly contribute to environmental harm. We leave devices plugged in all day, run half-empty loads of laundry, or rely too often on single-use products. These small choices can add up fast, but we don't have to overhaul our entire lifestyle to make a difference.

For example, exfoliating scrubs may feel great, but many contain microbeads, which are smaller than a grain of sand, but let tiny plastic particles slip through, polluting rivers and oceans, harming marine life and making its way into the food chain.

CHOOSE MICROBEAD FREE products! Another example is letting food waste go to landfills. Food breaks down in landfill without oxygen and releases methane, a greenhouse gas more than 28 times more potent than carbon dioxide. COMPOSTING food scraps is the environmentally sound way to go.

Plastic is everywhere but we can try make a small difference by choosing glass, reusable bags and compostable bags. Just SAY "NO TO PLASTIC" as often as possible.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus tells us that he has come to set fire to the earth. What can we give him as kindling? Let us look into our souls and see where the fire of Christ can be ignited, and pray that our souls may be consumed by its life-giving flames.

Sunday:	20th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Tuesday:	St. John Eudes, Priest
Wednesday:	St. Bernard, Abbot and Doctor of the Church
Thursday:	St. Pius X, Pope

Devotions, Explained!

Defined by a monophonic (meaning a single melody without harmony or chords), unaccompanied song, Gregorian chant is a form of sacred music used in liturgical settings and prayer. It has been synonymous with Catholic musical worship since the first millennium.

Prayer for Bravery

Dear God,
In the moments when my faith is met with others' disdain or ridicule, give me the grace to be grounded in You. Remind me that Your mission matters, and that You alone bring comfort, healing, and salvation.
Amen.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: If we let Christ set fire to our lives, what would that fire burn away? What dead and festering undergrowth in our souls would be consumed by the flames? What promise of future holiness would sprout from beneath the ashes?

The Fire

This past week I have been reading a biography of St. Francis of Assisi. I admit I didn't know much about Francis going into the book, but I always had this image of him as a hippie — an easygoing nature-lover who sang about peace and let animals climb on him.

I'm not sure where that caricature of Francis came from, but since I've been reading this book I've come to see that it's not true at all. He was a lover of nature, yes. A poet who sang of God's peace, yes. And I'm sure he let a few animals climb on him from time to time (he did live in a hut in the woods).

But St. Francis of Assisi wasn't the lost fourth member of Peter, Paul and Mary. He was a man on fire. He was a man burning.

Francis walked around barefoot and slept on the ground. He abandoned a life of wealth to embrace the material poverty that Christ experienced. He embarrassed his family and they disowned him. When his father would encounter Francis in the streets of Assisi, he would curse him.

Sometimes we get this idea that Christianity is a comfortable, cozy thing. We give our lives to Christ, and we expect to feel instantly satisfied, happy, safe and warm. But the saints knew better.

The saints knew that Christ had not come to wrap us in a warm blanket. Christ has come to set us on fire. And though fire is often seen as a sign of death and destruction, it is also the precursor of new life.

Think of a field of native plants and how it benefits so richly from a controlled burn — an action that clears away detritus and releases nutrients back into the soil.

If we let Christ set fire to our lives, what would that fire burn away? What dead and festering undergrowth in our souls would be consumed by the flames? What promise of future holiness would sprout from beneath the ashes?

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do we have a feast for the Queenship of Mary?

Answer:

For many of us, the language of kings and queens may seem like they belong to history or a medieval movie. Royalty have absolute authority over a kingdom and their subjects, a concept that is foreign to many of us today. While Jesus doesn't rule a political kingdom, we honor and recognize him as the King of Kings, Lord of Heaven and Earth. To God alone belongs absolute authority over all of existence.

We may think of queens as the spouse of the king, but there is another key relationship: the king's mother. In Biblical history, we see instances where the mother of the king is given due as a queen herself, complete with a throne! Mary's guiding influence over her Son is seen most notably in the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary is not Queen on her own merit. She is "full of grace" and "blessed" in "all ages" because of the reign of her Son.

Write a little poem for Jesus.

Prayer

Dear Jesus, help me to stay close to you always.

Mission for the Week

Be very loving when you tell others about Jesus.

Sharing the Gospel

When you talk about Jesus, you will probably get a strong reaction from people. Some people love Jesus with their whole heart, and their lives really show it. Other people don't want to follow Jesus, and talking about him may even make them angry. Families and friends can be torn apart by that anger. No matter what, stay close to Jesus, and he will stay close to you.
