Dear Parish Family & Friends,

As I begin my final week as Business Manager of St. Elizabeth Seton, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to each of you.

Throughout my 36 years in various roles at St. Elizabeth Seton, it has been both a privilege and a gift to work alongside faith-filled Pastors, dedicated staff, supportive parishioners, and generous volunteers. I am deeply grateful for the many opportunities I've had for personal, spiritual, and professional growth-and for the trust, support, and friendships I've been blessed with along the way. These experiences will always remain close to my heart.

While I will be stepping away from the Business Manager role, I'm happy to share that I will continue to remain a member of this wonderful parish family. I look forward to praying with you and staying connected in faith, friendship and fellowship.

It is also my pleasure to introduce my successor, Gloria Kapsa, who has already begun transitioning into the role of Business Manager. Gloria brings a wealth of experience and knowledge. Please join me in welcoming her and offering your full support as she steps into her new role.

Thank you again for everything. I love our parish, and I am filled with gratitude to be a part of the parish family of St. Elizabeth Seton. My prayer is that we remain faithful and grateful to God as we continue to grow as prayerful and peaceful people.

God is so good!

Live Well, Laugh Often, Love Much,

Kathy McGowan

Fall Bible Study on the Books of Wisdom

This fall the SES Bible study will be the Wisdom books of the Bible. Scripture and the Tradition of the Catholic Church provide an abundance of wisdom, though it can often be challenging to apply it to our lives. In this eight-part study, Jeff Cavins and Thomas Smith examine biblical wisdom as it relates to daily life. Drawing on the wisdom literature of the Bible - Proverbs, Wisdom, Sirach, and Ecclesiastes - Wisdom: God's Vision for Life will teach you how to actively seek sound guidance and increase your sense of peace in navigating life.

Classes begin on Thursday, September 11th, at either 9:00 a.m. or 7:00 p.m. for 8 sessions. Signup is required as there are limited seats. Also, a study book is required, purchased from Ascension Press.

For questions and details contact Bob Purpura at bobpurpura@gmail.com

SHOP-SES

SHOP-SES is a pre-paid card program in which the parish can purchase store gift cards at a discount. By selling the cards at face value, the parish can generate additional funds without costing the parishioners additional money. Cards are used as cash at the various stores. All you need to do is purchase them prior to making your regular purchases. A list of cards immediately available can be found on the parish website <https://www.sesnaperville.org/shop-ses>.

Don't forget to register for the SHOP-SES online services. This will allow you to view all the cards that are available, reload your cards and purchase E-cards. Go to <https://www.sesnaperville.org/shop-ses> for more information.

You can place orders and get cards by sending e-mails to SHOP-SES2011@Comcast.net, by calling the parish office at 630-416-3325 or, on the second weekend of the month (Sept 13 and 14), before and after the 5:00, 8:30 and 10:00 Masses and before the 11:30 Mass in the lower level.

*Can you touch a prayer?
Can you pull it close and feel its comfort?*

You can if it's part of a Prayer Quilt from our Prayer Quilt ministry. It's a simple idea with powerful results, but our Prayer Quilts are more than just colorful, comforting blankets. The warmth they bring comes from the prayers that are tied into each knot.

If you know of anyone in financial, mental, physical or spiritual crisis, please consider requesting a prayer quilt for them.

EARTH CARE

Each year from September 1 to October 4, our Christian family unites for the worldwide celebration of prayer and action to protect our common home. It is a special season when we celebrate God as our Creator and acknowledge Creation as the divine continuing act that calls us to love and care for the gift of all that is created. We rejoice in this opportunity to safeguard our common home and all beings who share it. This year, the theme for the season of creation is “Peace with Creation.”

We begin with the World Day of Prayer for creation September 1st

And end with the Feast of St. Francis, beloved by many as the patron saint of ecology, on October 4th.

The Biblical text for this year is Isaiah 33. The prophet Isaiah pictured the desolated Creation without peace because of the lack of justice and the broken relationship between God and humankind. This description of devastated cities and wastelands eloquently stresses the fact that human destructive behaviors have a negative impact on the Earth. There is still hope for a peaceful Earth, a more beautiful Earth.

To hope does not mean to stand still and quiet, but to act, pray, change and reconcile with Creation and our Creator in unity.

What will you do as an action during this Season of Creation?

Besides recycling, reusing, saying no to plastic, using less, etc...

To fully celebrate God's creation, consider worshipping outside. Creation itself worships God – mountains, rivers, trees and all creatures glorify the Lord simply by living as they were created to. Worshipping amidst nature allows us to join in this continuous praise. Sing a song of praise for all creation.

Who is Your Child's First Teacher?

Who is your child's first and most important teacher? Parents are! Despite what our culture often tries to tell us, being a teacher does not require special skills or certifications for parents. We are always teaching our children! We are teaching them even when we are not trying.

Teaching is what we do naturally, just as learning from parents is what children do naturally. When children are treated well, they learn most things with ease.

Especially in the younger years, before peer groups become more influential, parental guidance is far and away the most important factor in who a child grows up to be. When kids enter their teen years, parents continue to have more influence than they realize.

Our Family Faith Formation at-home resource, A Family of Faith from Sophia Press, provides parents knowledge and tools to share the beauty of our Catholic faith and traditions with their children. Faith formation does not happen in an hour or two a week. It happens moment by moment, as we make choices and choose our priorities. Our family journey leads us into an ongoing conversation with God as we pray throughout the day seeking His plans for our lives and our family. Pope Saint John Paul II said, "The ministry of evangelization carried out by Christian parents is original and irreplaceable." Our vocation as parents is our greatest gift and challenge:)

282 KEL

Although this classic book by Matthew Kelly is over twenty years old, it remains relevant to those seeking to more fully understand the foundations of our Catholic faith. There is a resurgence of interest in Catholicism, particularly since the installation of our new Pope Leo XIV, and it's been widely reported in the media that younger Catholics are leading the way in a commitment to the faith. Dynamic Catholic is an excellent resource for books and daily devotions to bolster our spiritual journeys.

Visit our Welcome Center to obtain free copies of other titles and check out Rediscover Catholicism in our parish library. It offers an overview of, as Matthew Kelly often states, "the genius of Catholicism."

Search online catalog by author, title or subject on Parish website.

Children's books are available for use during Mass.

Prayer

Lord, help me share the things I prize most.

Mission for the Week

I will share part of the money I have with the poor.

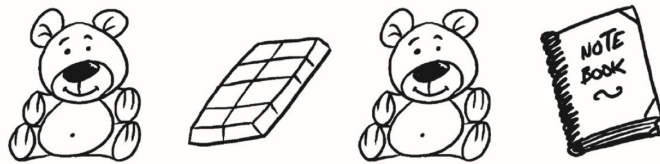

Sharing the Gospel

Love God more than yourself. This means you will give up something you dearly love for him. When you have only one candy bar, God wants you to share it with your sister. When you have two pencils and two notebooks, God wants you to share with a student who has none. If your grandmother and grandfather play games and read to you, God wants you to share them with children who have no grandparents.

Circle the picture that is the same as the first one. Then color in all the pictures.
