THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Jesus said to Nicodemus:
"No one has gone up to heaven except the one who
has come down from heaven,
the Son of Man." For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world,
but that the world might be
saved through him.
- Jn 3:13, 17

Thank You!

Ertha Papillon, from Duchity, Haiti spoke at all the Masses the weekend of August 16/17. She sent the following thank you to the St. Elizabeth Seton Community:

It is a big pleasure for me to thank all of you in this beautiful parish for welcoming me and for helping us in Haiti. Thank you for allowing me to talk in the church and for listening to me.

Your generous contributions of $16,666.05 will help the children's lives change in the orphanage and in the school. You have given them more hope by letting them know that people in the US, who do not know them personally, care about them and want to help make a difference in their lives.

Several of you shared your own stories with me after mass. I was deeply touched and honored that you shared with me. Thank you.

The theme of the readings during that weekend was God's faithfulness to us. He is always there for all, and He uses each of us to work together to feed us on our spiritual journey. I am grateful to be on this journey with you.

We in Haiti have been blessed by God through you. Thank you again and God bless all of you.

Ertha Papillon

The Leo Effect: Reflecting After 100 Days

In the world of leadership, there is a common practice: after the first one hundred days in office, we pause to reflect. What direction is this new leader taking us in? What tone has been set? Where might we be headed?

In these early months, we are beginning to see the kind of shepherd God has given us. The “Leo Effect,” as I like to call it, is the fruit of his presence. It is the blessings, the new stirrings, and the hopeful signs already emerging in our Church and in our world.

At a recent Presbyteral Council meeting, one of our Augustinian priests told me that, since Pope Leo is himself an Augustinian, they have noticed a marked increase in young men expressing interest in the priesthood. That is the Leo Effect in action. These are ripples of inspiration that move from Rome all the way to local parishes and communities like ours.

Another question I have been asked many times in recent weeks is this: will Pope Leo XIV choose Chicagoland as the first place he visits? People have wondered if he might return to his roots in the south suburbs, visit his old neighborhood in Dolton, grab a slice of his favorite pizza, or even celebrate Mass at White Sox Park. As wonderful as that would be, and as much as I would personally love to see it, I usually remind people that his first stop is more likely to be a place in urgent need of healing, reconciliation, or peace. Perhaps the Holy Land, perhaps Ukraine, or perhaps another corner of the world that needs his pastoral presence. But who knows? The Holy Spirit guides these journeys, and for now we simply wait in joyful anticipation.

People close to Pope Leo have said, “He listens more than he talks.” That in itself is part of the Leo Effect. In an age of noise and constant headlines, the witness of a leader who listens deeply is striking. His way of leadership is not rooted in quick soundbites but in steady gestures of closeness and compassion. Early in his pontificate, he celebrated Mass with the homeless and then shared a meal with them. He has spoken often of the “fire of love” that must burn within us, not a fire that remains hidden, but one that spreads outward in compassion, justice, and peace.

Another sign of the Leo Effect is his bridge-building across cultures. Born in the United States, formed as a missionary in Peru, and shaped by the Augustinian spirit of community and humility, Pope Leo embodies the universality of the Church. His very life story unites North and South America, English and Spanish, tradition, and modernity.

Pope Leo has also expressed concern about pressing global issues. He has spoken about the moral questions surrounding artificial intelligence, reminding us not to allow technology, money, or power to displace God. He has called for peace in conflict zones, urging the world to pursue reconciliation. He has also reminded us that the greatness of the Church is not measured in status or wealth, but in holiness and service. Recently, he approved a new Mass for the Care of Creation, highlighting his commitment to safeguarding our common home and encouraging all believers to pray and act for the protection of God’s earth.

At the same time, he has shown deep respect for tradition. When he walked out onto the balcony of St. Peter’s, he reclaimed the use of the mozzetta, a traditional papal vestment symbolizing continuity with history. He also revived the ancient practice of personally bestowing the pallium on new archbishops. These gestures remind us that while Pope Leo leads the Church into new challenges, he remains anchored in her history and symbols. His leadership balances continuity with creativity.

Many have also noted his warmth and relatability. He is approachable, enjoys simple pastimes like baseball, tennis, and word games, and speaks plainly from the heart. These touches of humanity remind us that the pope is not a distant figure but a pastor walking with his flock.

The Leo Effect is nothing less than the Holy Spirit reminding us that God is alive and active in His Church. And just as the world pauses after one hundred days to reflect on a leader, let us pause to recognize the Spirit’s work through Pope Leo XIV. As we pray for our new Holy Father, let us also commit ourselves to being open to the impact the Leo Effect can have on our own lives, to become people of unity, compassion, and love that set the world aflame.

EARTH CARE

Each year from September 1 to October 4, our Christian family unites for the worldwide celebration of prayer and action to protect our common home. It is a special season when we celebrate God as our Creator and acknowledge Creation as the divine continuing act that calls us to love and care for the gift of all that is created. We rejoice in this opportunity to safeguard our common home and all beings who share it. This year, the theme for the season of creation is "Peace with Creation."

We begin with the World Day of Prayer for creation September 1st
And end with the Feast of St. Francis, beloved by many as the patron saint of ecology,
on October 4th.

The Biblical text for this year is Isaiah 33. The prophet Isaiah pictured the desolated Creation without peace because of the lack of justice and the broken relationship between God and humankind. This description of devastated cities and wastelands eloquently stresses the fact that human destructive behaviors have a negative impact on the Earth. There is still hope for a peaceful Earth, a more beautiful Earth.

To hope does not mean to stand still and quiet, but to act, pray, change and reconcile with Creation and our Creator in unity.

What will you do as an action during this Season of Creation?

Besides recycling, reusing, saying no to plastic, using less, etc...

To fully celebrate God's creation, consider worshipping outside. Creation itself worships God – mountains, rivers, trees and all creatures glorify the Lord simply by living as they were created to. Worshipping amidst nature allows us to join in this continuous praise. Sing a song of praise for all creation.

Your Catholic Home—A Special Place to Encounter Christ

Within our homes, we designate places for cooking, eating, socializing, sleeping, and bathing. Do we have a special spot for God within our home? A place set aside for Him, our Heavenly Father, who created us and breathed life into us? The word "consecration" means "to set apart," and we are called to consecrate a space in our home to God. We must give God our best space and our best time. When we order our hearts and homes correctly—with God as the head of our families—our lives are transformed and we begin to experience true freedom and joy.

Making a prayer corner in our home is one way to create a special spot for us to spend time with God. Prayer is a conversation with God that St. Therese of Lisieux described as "surge of the heart." Having a special place where we gather with our children to pray enables us to make prayer a regular part of family life.

If you do not already have a dedicated place set aside for your family to pray, create a simple prayer space this month. Set up a "prayer corner" in your kitchen, family room, on a mantel, a small table or a special shelf in a bookcase. Items to decorate your prayer space with crucifix or religious images/statues, candles, holy water, a prayer journal, rosaries, a Bible and other spiritual readings, prayer card or devotional items. Don't wait...make it a family activity TODAY:)

Prayer

God, you are my power

Mission for the Week

Every morning, I will remember to tell Jesus
that I believe in him.

Sharing the Gospel

The Hebrew people were being bitten by serpents in the desert.
God told Moses to make a serpent out of bronze and put it on a pole. Everyone who looked at it would be healed. God put an end to the serpents
and helped the Hebrew
people. Many years
later, Jesus was lifted up on the cross. We look at him and know that Jesus is our strength, our hope, and our healing. Look at the cross and say, "Jesus, I believe in you."
