29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?" - Lk 18:7-8

Intentions for the week of October 20:

Special Family Intention

Seminarian Education Endowment

Support our future priests through the second collection for Seminarian Formation!

Priests are essential to our Catholic faith, as only these holy men can transform bread and wine into the life-giving Body and Blood of Christ. The Holy Spirit has blessed the Diocese of Joliet with an abundance of vocations to the priesthood.

Currently, our diocese has 27 men in seminary formation, which costs $53,900 a year per seminarian. To ensure we are always able to support our seminarians both prayerfully and financially, the Diocese of Joliet has established this second collection.

At Masses next weekend, our parish will take up a second collection for this effort. Gifts will be invested in an endowment designated specifically for seminarian education.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this second collection. To learn more about this campaign, or to make a gift online, use your smart phone to scan this QR code.

Elevator Repair Update

Parts have been ordered and the repair is scheduled! The elevator should be running again by December 1. The repair cost is $13,692. Thank you for your patience and your continued support.

Last weekend, St. Elizabeth Seton welcomed the following children to the Catholic faith through the Sacrament of Baptism.

Lincoln Michael Beck, son of Michael and Audrey Beck.

Riley Desiree Dennison, daughter of James and Nicole Dennison.

ALL SOULS DAY

“We Remember”

The people we love never really die. They live on in our hearts, in our stories and in our memories. Perhaps your loss was some time ago. Maybe it was very recent. If you had to travel away from the community to the funeral of a loved one, coming home again might have left you with a feeling of incompleteness.

Please join us at the 10:00am Mass on Sunday, November 2 as we gather together to celebrate not only the earthly lives of these wonderful people, but also their new lives in Christ. The names of those who have passed this year will be listed in the Bulletin.

*We loved them in life.
Let us remember them in death.*

ALL SOULS NOVENA OF MASSES

November is the month in which we traditionally remember all of those who have died, our family and friends who have gone before us. We especially remember them on the Feast of All Souls on November 2.

This year we will be celebrating a Novena of Masses (9 in all) for all of your Beloved Deceased Family and Friends. All Souls Day envelopes were included in your envelope packet and will also be available at the Welcome Desk. Please take a few minutes to list the names of everyone you would like remembered, and place it in the collection basket. Those envelopes will be placed on the Altar for each of the Nine Masses of our Novena.

Whether or not you choose to include a stipend in the envelope is your choice, it is not required. But we do want to include all the names in the Mass intentions. The dates for the Novena Masses will be found in the Bulletin, starting on November 2, the Feast of All Souls.

October 2025

Dear Friends,

On October 19th, we celebrate World Mission Sunday, when we join Catholics around the world in supporting the missionary work of the Church—a day of prayer, reflection, and financial support for the Church's missionary work in 1,124 territories. These are regions of the world where the Church is still young, growing, and often facing poverty, conflict, or persecution. Just as we are recommitting ourselves today to MAKE disciples in the Diocese of Joliet, World Mission Sunday, reflects Jesus' great commission, to 'go and make disciples of all nations' (Matthew 28:19).

This year's theme, "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," invites us to reflect deeply on the meaning of hope in the Christian life. Our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, echoes this theme in his first apostolic exhortation, "Dilexi Te" ("I Have Loved You"), when he says, "God has a special place in his heart for those who are discriminated against and oppressed, and he asks us, his Church, to make a decisive and radical choice in favor of the weakest." So, let's join Our Holy Father and help him care for our brothers and sisters in missionary lands all across the globe. This second collection supports:

- The formation of seminarians and future religious sisters and brothers
- The education of children in Catholic schools
- Healthcare and pastoral care in remote and underserved regions
- The training of catechists and lay leaders
- The construction of churches, chapels, schools, and mission centers

The invitation to be "Missionaries of Hope among the peoples" is not for just some of us — it belongs to all of us by baptism. When we give, we are not simply making a donation—we are participating in a spiritual and missionary act of love, sustaining the Church where it cannot yet sustain itself. And when we pray for the missions, especially during World Mission Month, we are united with those bringing Christ's hope to the peripheries of the world.

Christian hope is not a vague optimism; it is the fruit of divine love—alive in us and active through us. That is why our missionary efforts are powerful acts of hope, especially for those suffering from poverty, violence, or religious persecution.

With every good wish, may God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks
Bishop of Joliet

~During Ordinary Time~

Fall is officially here and Our Lord is still waiting for you to spend time with Him.
How is your relationship with God?

You know what you have to do...Just open the door, walk in and sit or kneel for awhile and embrace the solitude.

In a recent homily, Fr. Scott shared that God has given us the gift of free will, to choose to love Him freely. Do you return His love through your actions?
Do you strive to have a personal encounter with the Lord? Have you said that you are sorry in a loving way? How is your relationship with God these days?
LISTEN for His answer!

Enjoy a brief excerpt from Dn. Andy Cirimo's reflections regarding Eucharist Adoration:

I found some time I thought was mine, and gave some back to You, In thanks and praise for what you've done. I've thanked You, times, far too few.
Yet in this place I stop to pray that I could find You, too.

Youth Choir rehearsals for the Christmas Season will begin Wednesday, November 5th, 4:45-5:40 p.m. in Church

This is a tremendous opportunity for the younger members of our parish to become more engaged in our liturgical celebrations while making new friends, experiencing the joy of music, and becoming our youngest volunteer members!

Even the younger members of our parish can learn and appreciate the importance of volunteering their time and talents. This is a terrific way for children to learn more about the Mass and become closer to Jesus.

The time commitment for the Christmas season Youth Choir is minimal but offers awesome rewards!

You can if it's part of a Prayer Quilt from our Prayer Quilt ministry. It's a simple idea with powerful results, but our Prayer Quilts are more than just colorful, comforting blankets. The warmth they bring comes from the prayers that are tied into each knot.

If you know of anyone in financial, mental, physical or spiritual crisis, please consider requesting a prayer quilt for them.

Diocese of Joliet Catholic Schools

Does Prayer Make a Difference?

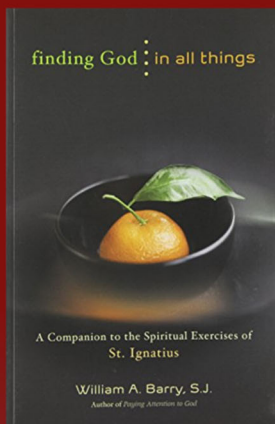

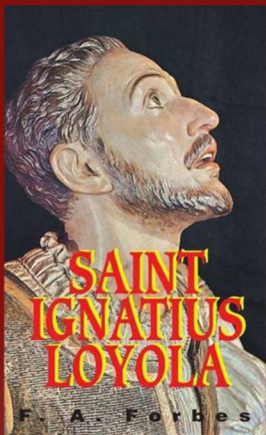

If God knows everything and has a perfect plan, why pray? We know that prayer works because God promises it does throughout the old and new testaments. We have seen the power of prayer at work throughout history and hopefully within our own lives.

Jesus warned us not to think of prayer as a kind of magic where if you just say the right words, for the right length of time, then you'll get your wish. God isn't our genie. He's our Father. In prayer, we do not come simply before "a judge who is God of all", like a terrified defendant before a mighty court. Instead, we come as beloved children to a merciful father, Our Father, who chases after us even when we have wandered off.

Before giving us the Lord's Prayer, Jesus tells us that "your Father knows what you need before you ask Him" (Matt. 6:8). Jesus doesn't say that the Father knows what we want; He knows what we NEED. If we ask for a fish, God's not going to give us a serpent. The problem is, we're often asking for serpents in our prayers and wondering why He does not give them to us.

St. James puts it bluntly, "You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions" (James 4:3).

God gives us free will. We have to choose God, to be in relationship with Him and to depend on Him for every goodness He has planned for us. Even if the goodness is simply carrying us through the hardships of our life that result from the sinfulness of our broken world. Approaching God as a Father should help us understand why He wants us to talk to Him, why we can trust Him, and why we shouldn't despair when we do not get what we want. God has something better planned...
