THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

To those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me.
- Jn 2:16-17

Flames of Faith

(Sanctuary Lamps and Adoration Chapel Candles)

Intentions for the week of November 10:

Special Family Intention

FLAMES OF FAITH

Have you noticed the red candles flickering in the church and in the Adoration Chapel? These Flames of Faith are constantly burning to show Jesus is there, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. We have two red sanctuary lamps on either side of the tabernacle in church, and two candles before Jesus in the adoration chapel. For a $10 donation, you can keep these Flames of Faith burning for one week with your special intentions.

Please stop in the Parish Office to arrange to have a candle burn in the Adoration Chapel or in the Church for your intentions. We will then publish those intentions in the bulletin each week.

Bishop Hicks' Column November 2025

“I Have Loved You” — A Gift from the Holy Father

The wait is over! After just five months of being elected, Pope Leo XIV has speedily penned and shared with us his first Apostolic Exhortation, Dilexi Te \(“I Have Loved You”\). It radiates the heart of Jesus and reminds us that love for Christ and love for the poor are inseparable. The Holy Father teaches that when we draw close to those who are weak, forgotten, or struggling, we meet Christ himself. It is not only an invitation to charity; it is a call to conversion.

In last month's column, I invited everyone to read my pastoral letter MAKE! which lays out our diocesan vision for evangelization. If you have not yet done so, I encourage you to take some quiet time to read and pray with it, and now to also read Dilexi Te. These two letters, the Holy Father's and ours, speak to one another with one voice: a call to be a Church that listens, serves, and brings the love of Christ into action.

Some may think this theme of love for the poor is simply a continuation of Pope Francis and something that only Francis and Leo share in common. However, Pope Leo shows in a scholarly and deeply pastoral way that love for the poor has always been at the very heart of the Church. Throughout Dilexi Te he grounds this teaching in Scripture from the Old and New Testaments and draws upon the wisdom of the Early Church Fathers, the lives of the saints, and the witness of countless religious orders and popular movements. He even highlights how Saint John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI carried forward this same conviction in their own teaching. Far from being a new idea, Pope Leo reminds us that this is part of the Church's unbroken tradition, one that the world urgently needs to hear again today.

Reading Dilexi Te moved me deeply. It reminded me that when we share life with the poor, they evangelize us. During my years serving in El Salvador at a home for orphaned and abandoned children, I remember when a donation allowed us to buy doughnuts for all 525 children. We ran out before the adult staff could have any, including me. Then a little boy approached and offered me two thirds of his doughnut. I said, “That's generous, but give me one third and keep two thirds.” He replied, “No, Padre, you're bigger and probably hungrier, you get more.” That small act of love preached the Gospel better than any homily.

I was struck by Pope Leo's reminder that poverty is not only material. There is also a spiritual poverty, an emptiness and isolation that affects many, especially in our own country. He warns that this kind of poverty can be even more dangerous because it hides behind comfort or distraction. This insight challenges us to see the poor not only as those who lack food or shelter but also as those who hunger for meaning, mercy, and belonging. Our call is to reach both kinds of poverty with the same love of Christ.

Not long ago, I visited a parish food pantry where volunteers gathered to pray before they served. It was not simply about groceries; it was catechesis, evangelization, and faith in action all at once. One volunteer said, “Bishop, we try to do more than give out donations. We are trying to share God's love and see the face of Christ in everyone we serve.” That is Dilexi Te come to life. When love meets action, we encounter Christ, and transformation happens.

May Dilexi Te be a roadmap for a Church that truly believes what it proclaims: that Christ's love is most visible when we serve, listen, and walk with the poor. In every act of mercy and every parish outreach, may we turn faith into action and reveal the love that Pope Leo describes so powerfully. And may we, as disciples here in the Diocese of Joliet, make that love visible in our words, our witness, and our works every single day.

The Unexpected Loss and the Road of Healing Catholics Care

Back in March, I discovered I was pregnant for the first time. My husband and I were overjoyed - our dream of becoming parents was finally coming true. But a few days before Mother's Day, during my first ultrasound, we learned heartbreaking news: we had lost our baby at seven weeks.

Our world fell apart. We felt lost, angry, and full of "what ifs." Yet through the pain, we realized God had never left us. Our parish community surrounded us with love and support. Deacon Gerard even offered a special service for our baby, whom we named Baby Kennedy.

With guidance from Father Scott and the comfort of counseling, we slowly began to heal. We later joined SHARE - A Walk to Remember, a memorial event for families who have lost babies. Seeing so many others walking this same journey brought us peace and connection.

Not long after, we were invited to join the Catholics Care ministry at St. Elizabeth Seton to support others through their grief. We said "yes" to God's call - to help others know they are not alone.

The month of November continues to honor All the Saints as well as All Souls. One of our many patron saints is St. Padre Pio, who shares many thoughts and prayers regarding the Joys of Adoration.

"When you open the door of your heart for Jesus, in prayer, before the Blessed Sacrament, you can experience never-ending peace and joy. Kneel down and render the tribute of your presence and devotion to Jesus. Confide all your needs to him, along with those of others. Speak to him with filial abandonment, give free rein to your heart and give him complete freedom to work in you as HE thinks best."

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please email Felicia Donofrio at the Parish Office, sesfdonofrio@comcast.net.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It “will pay” to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

Update Membership Information

Does our Church database have YOUR family membership record correct?

Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory (if you haven’t already done so).

Congratulations!!

To our children who met Jesus for the first time in the Sacrament of Reconciliation!

There was great joy in heaven and on earth at St. Elizabeth Seton Parish on Tuesday.

Many thanks to our parents for preparing their children for this life changing gift of forgiveness and sharing their faith and love of Jesus. We are also grateful to our volunteers Art and Jean Sheridan, Sheila Stevenson and Susanne Kennedy who share their faith in Jesus each month with the children and whose presence provided a peaceful and joyful evening for our children and families.

We invite all families, in Family Faith Formation, to experience this JOY of this Sacrament which is offered at 4:00 pm every Saturday before 5 pm Mass. You also may call the Parish Office (630-416-3325) to schedule an appointment with Father Scott.

Check out The Search by Chris Stefanick at the Parish Library

Chris Stefanick is the founder of Real Life Catholic, an organization that promotes the Catholic faith.

This book focuses on our quest for meaning leading us ultimately to Jesus and the Church he founded: our Catholic Church. Chris is a prolific speaker and has established podcasts which can be accessed on YouTube and Instagram. His enthusiasm and joy are palpable whether you read this book or any of the other titles he has authored.

For those who prefer to access him via media platforms, he is a leader in Catholic Evangelization and well worth exploring.

Prayer

Lord, I will fill your house with prayer, songs, and worship.

Mission for the Week

I will respect God's house with my voice, my clothing, and my actions.

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine that in your church on Sunday, there were people near the altar selling cows, pigs, and sheep. A man was selling doves on the right. Bankers were giving change on the left. Your pastor got very angry. He turned over their tables. He shouted, "Get these animals out of here. How dare you turn my Father's house into a market!" They cleaned up and left. Your pastor knelt down and prayed, "Father, forgive them."

Now color the picture!

Circle the group in each row that has more.
Then color in all the pictures.
