Dedicate a Hymnal Program

St. Elizabeth Seton Parish is undertaking a meaningful project to purchase hymnals for our church! Our goal is to start the 2026 Lenten Season with our new hymnals.

We invite you to participate in this special project by sponsoring a hymnal in your own name, in the memory of a departed loved one or in honor of an important event (such as birth, anniversary or Holy Day).

A personalized bookplate label will be placed inside the cover of a new hardbound hymnal, creating a lasting memorial for all who use it. Both the donor's name and the name of the person being memorialized/honored can be included.

The suggested donation is $30 per book which will cover the cost of the hymnal and memorial label. One person, family or event per book. (Presentation cards are available upon request).

To order, please fill out the form below and return it to the Parish Office or place the form with your donation in the collection basket. Order forms can also be found at the Welcome Desk or you can go online at <https://www.wesharegiving.org/App/Form/71c81902-122f-4c5d-b91b-94933a9f275f> or by scanning the QR code. Please contact Gloria Kapsa with any questions - 630-416-3325 or businessmanager@sescatholic.org.

Christmas Memorial Flowers

Once again we are giving our parishioners the opportunity to remember their deceased family members by donating flowers in their memory. The many beautiful poinsettia plants that will adorn our church can be given in memory of loved ones. A list of those remembered will be included in the bulletin at a later date.

A flower envelope was included in your envelope packets - they are also available in the Narthex. You can also fill out the form below and place it in the collection basket or return it to the Parish Office.

Finding Hope Behind Bars: Becoming Disciples Who Make Disciples in Unexpected Places

We celebrate Advent and Christmas as seasons of light and joy, yet sometimes the brightest hope appears in the places we least expect. Over the years, I have found that ministering to those in prison is one of the most unexpected ways to live out the call of my pastoral letter MAKE to be disciples who make disciples.

My first encounter with prison ministry goes back to my volunteer year in Mexico in 1989. A female catechist invited me to join her in visiting a large prison. I remember the surprise of walking in with barely any formal checks and feeling a bit baffled and nervous about how I would get out. Yet what stayed with me most was her simple reminder: "They all have names. They are often forgotten, but if you become a priest, remember they exist. See the face of Christ in them!"

Years later, as a seminarian accompanying Cardinal Bernardin to the Cook County Jail for Christmas Mass, I saw that same spirit of discipleship. He had no family in Chicago, yet he found joy in bringing the Eucharist to those often forgotten. He showed me that prison ministry is not simply a duty but a moment of grace. It is a chance to be a disciple who brings Christ's hope to others.

Someone once told me that one of the humbling aspects of ministering in prisons is that the people you serve can never repay you. You do it simply because Christ calls us to recognize His presence in them. In that pure act of service, we quietly plant seeds of faith in hearts that society often overlooks.

Two weeks ago, I had the privilege of celebrating the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion for four inmates at the Joliet Detention Center. Their deep desire and reverence reminded me again of that woman's wisdom from years ago. They have names, they exist, and they are just as worthy of God's grace. After the Mass, each newly minted Catholic offered a testimonial, thanking those who brought Christ to them and sharing how lost they felt before being introduced to God and the Church. Their desire to cling to hope and live out their newfound faith inspired me deeply as we gathered in that makeshift prison chapel.

Let me highlight the ministry of the growing number of laypeople, deacons, and priests in our Diocese who are living out this call and bringing Christ's love to the incarcerated. And they do it with no fanfare. Truly, no one is writing them thank you notes or sending them gifts for their ministry. We as a Church and as a Diocese should be proud that so many are putting their faith into action through this ministry.

In Catholic social teaching, we uphold the dignity of every human being, even those who have sinned or been cast aside by society. As Jesus says in Matthew's Gospel: "Whatever you did for one of the least of these, you did for me." This is the heart of our mission. To see Christ in the prisoner, the hungry, the thirsty, the unborn, the immigrant, the person with disabilities, the stranger, and all in need. It is a true Christian hope. It is the conviction that Christ is with us always and that every person is worth seeing, knowing, and loving in His name.

In a few weeks, I will celebrate Christmas Mass at the DuPage County Correctional Facility. As I prepare for that Mass, please know that I will carry your intentions with me in prayer. Also, join me in prayer as together we carry that hope not only into the prisons but into every place where Christ's light is most needed. Our homes, our parishes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, and all the hidden corners of our lives and our world.

May we never overlook the unexpected places where God's grace, hope, and light are waiting to break through and transform us all. For when we see the face of Christ in every person we meet, we fulfill the mission of being disciples who MAKE disciples.

Men's Welcome Weekend

Are you looking for a unique way to explore your faith?

Would you like to connect with other men in the parish?

Men's Welcome is a great opportunity to form new friendships with other members of St. Elizabeth Seton. The event focuses on reflection talks given by team members on their Catholic faith journey, and includes the opportunity for Reconciliation, Mass, and personal prayer. Meet & greet Fr. Scott Saturday night.

The Welcome experience is an event given by fellow parishioners.

The Men's event is February 28-March 1, 2026.

You'll find Welcome registration forms at the Welcome Desk or contact: George Carrasquilla, Men's Welcome Invitation Coordinator - George-gretta91@sbcglobal.net

Be READY...

PREPARE....

The Third Sunday of Advent is also known as Gaudate Sunday. Gaudate is derived from two Latin words meaning "joy" and to rejoice or be glad. The priest's vestment color changes to pink to celebrate that the Infant's arrival will be soon. Gaudate Sunday occurs eight to thirteen days before Christmas, and the nearness of the feast is reason for great JOY! Have you prepared for the Birth of Our Lord? There is still time to be ready for HIM!

*"Rejoice in the Lord always.
Indeed the Lord is near." Phil 4:4-5*

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY IN MAKING SHARE CHRISTMAS A SUCCESS

Today is the day we play Santa Claus this year and is the culmination of all of our efforts for Share Christmas 2025.

Volunteers who signed up will be sorting, packing and delivering gifts to hundreds of grateful people – all thanks to the amazing generosity the SES community has again shown. Thank you all for your kindness!

A final word: All gift tags have been picked up.
Thank You!

Thank you to all of the many volunteers who are helping this weekend, who have helped us over the last several weeks at the tag tables, and to the amazing elves of the Share Christmas Ministry who came together to create another successful event.

That said, on behalf of the Share Christmas Ministry elves (er, team members) - give yourselves a pat on the back for another successful SHARE CHRISTMAS!

EARTH CARE

Live simply so others can simply live

Prayer written by Julia Walsh,
Boston Catholic Youth, Climate Leadership Team

Dear God, We thank you for giving us the opportunity to create a positive change in our environment, despite the constant battle of climate change. Thank you for giving us the resources to better appreciate the importance of nature and the beauty of conservation. Let us be guided by your light and wisdom to continue to do what is right by your beautiful Earth, Amen.

Important things to consider as you shop during advent for Christmas gifts

Reduce the number of gifts you buy and choose quality over quantity. Buy gently used gifts. Opt for print-at-home gift cards or certificates using paper instead of plastic. Experiences are great gifts as well. Use 100% recyclable gift wrap, wrap in fabric, or reusable bags. Or wrap in comics (kids love this). Gift tags can be re-purposed holiday cards. Keep in mind that tissue paper, ribbons and bows are not recyclable.

We are fortunate to have some recycling opportunities at SES.

In our cart next to the stairs on the lower level you can deposit clean plastic bags we bring to WSCP and metal pop tops we bring to Ronald McDonald house, along with many other items we bring to SCARCE, such as books, music CDs with cases, glasses without cases, hearing aids, plastic bread tags, unused paper, LP records, holiday lights, Keys, inkjet cartridges, new/like new school and office supplies, and only usable writing utensils. Staples will accept non-usable pens. We take whole and broken crayons, lego bricks, new or gently used binders.

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING NEEDS

This is that time of year when parents of young kids are seeing their child is growing like a weed!! One of our clients in our Transitional Housing Program can relate. Her young son is in need of gently used clothes. As you go through your child's clothes, please see if there is anything you think her son can use.

Long sleeve shirts/t-shirts - size 8 boys

Pants/jeans - size 8 boys

Black dress pants - size 8 boys

Winter jacket - size 8 boys

Winter gloves - size medium boys

Please contact me to schedule a pick up. If I don't answer right away, leave a message and I'll get back to you as soon as I can.

The Memorare (Latin for “Remember”) is often attributed to St. Bernard of Clairvaux, a Doctor of the Church. The Memorare is one of the most cherished Marian prayers in the Catholic faith. It’s a heartfelt reminder that we can always turn to our Blessed Mother, trusting in her unfailing help, especially in our times of need. The prayer beautifully expresses our confidence in approaching our Blessed Mother, knowing she will carry our petitions to her Son.

The Memorare begins with a powerful statement of confidence: “never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection... was left unaided.” This isn’t just poetic language—it’s a profound theological truth about Mary’s role in our spiritual lives. As the mother of Jesus, Mary has a unique relationship with Christ and a special place in our prayer life.

When we pray the Memorare, we’re acknowledging both our own need for help (“sinful and sorrowful”) and our complete trust in Mary’s maternal intercession. Unlike the Hail Mary, which begins with the angel Gabriel’s greeting, the Memorare immediately places us in a position of seeking Mary’s assistance with complete confidence in her care. Throughout Advent, let us call upon our Blessed Mother as we pray:

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

THE SIMPLE ART OF TAKING BACK YOUR LIFE

MATTHEW KELLY

This Christmas our parish is gifting every family a copy of Matthew Kelly's Slowing Down to the Speed of Joy.

We're happy to share this book with visitors joining us to celebrate Christmas, as well.

If you read one book to prepare for the upcoming new year, this is it. Matthew explains the importance of observing the Sabbath, which can be a transformative practice. He covers topics such as "Busy is not our Friend" and "the Wisdom of Enough."

Make sure you receive your copy (one per family) and consider slowing down in '26 to claim your joy

Prayer

Dear God, show me ways to help my friends follow God, too.

Mission for the Week

If you have any videos that tell Bible stories, watch one or two together with your family.

Sharing the Gospel

Name someone that you think is very important. Jesus said that John the Baptist was the greatest man ever born. John the Baptist did not live in a big house or wear nice clothes. He was not the president, and he did not own a huge company. You would probably think he was very poor. But John the Baptist was truly great because he loved and trusted God with his whole heart. He helped other people follow God, too.
