Essential information for the parent/carer

Once your child's sessions have been allocated we will require four weeks written notice within term time with regards to changes.

Please collect your child promptly after sessions or a late charge may be accrued. Please refer to the late policy on the parent's notice board.

All morning and afternoon snacks are charged at £5.00 per term. This includes milk or water and a healthy snack. Please keep staff updated of any allergies or preferences.

If your child attends lunch club a healthy lunch needs to be provided by the parent in a suitable box or container. Children will be provided with water at lunch times so no other drinks please. We cannot heat food on the premises however food will be stored at the relevant temperature. No nut products, chocolate bars or sweet confectionary please. Could you also please cut up any grapes or fruit into bite size pieces. Cool packs are to be placed in lunch boxes in the summer months.

Suitable clothes are essential. (A practical pre-school uniform is available to purchase) These include shoes or pumps with no laces. A suitable outdoor waterproof coat with hood or hat for winter. A sun hat is required daily in the summer term. Essential products like nappies and wipes are provided by the parent and placed on your child's peg. Please leave a set of spare clothes inside your child's bag. Name all items and please don't place disposable carrier bags on pegs for health and safety reasons.
