THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Many of us learned the Sign of the Cross before we learned to read. Forehead, chest, shoulder to shoulder: Father, Son, Holy Spirit. A child's gesture, a lifetime's theology without even realizing it. We have made that sign ten thousand times, and still, it is beyond our understanding.

That is not a failure of understanding. It is the nature of the mystery.

The Most Holy Trinity is what God revealed about himself when He decided we were worth knowing. He did not send a manual. He sent his Son. He sent his Spirit. And behind those acts of incredible generosity stands the Father, whose love is the reason any of this exists at all.

What the Trinity tells us is that God is not solitary. He is, by His very nature, unity... a relationship of total love between three Persons who are, impossibly and perfectly, one. We were made by Love, in the image of Love, for the purpose of Love.

Which means the restlessness we feel in our closest relationships, the longing for something deeper and more lasting than any human bond can fully deliver, is not a design flaw. It is a homing instinct. We were made for a love that looks like the Trinity: generous, self-emptying, endlessly alive.

This Sunday, we are reminded of what we are made of, and what we are made for. Carry that with you. Let it be larger than your worry, steadier than your doubt, and warmer than whatever the week ahead demands of you.

The Father sends you because the world needs you. The Son walks the road with you because He chose to. The Spirit dwells within you because you belong to Him. Go in peace.

DEACON DARREN

SANTISIMA TRINIDAD

Muchos de nosotros aprendimos a persignarnos antes de aprender a leer. Frente, pecho, de hombro a hombro: Padre, Hijo, Espíritu Santo. El gesto de un niño, la teología de toda una vida sin siquiera saberlo. Hemos hecho esa señal diez mil veces y, aun así, está más allá de nuestra comprensión. Eso no es un fracaso de la inteligencia. Es la naturaleza del misterio.

La Santísima Trinidad es lo que Dios reveló de sí mismo cuando decidió que valíamos la pena de ser conocidos. No envió un manual. Envío a su Hijo. Envío a su Espíritu. Y detrás de esos actos de generosidad inconmensurable está el Padre, cuyo amor es la razón por la que todo esto existe. Lo que la Trinidad nos dice es que Dios no es solitario. Es, por su propia naturaleza, unidad: una relación de amor total entre tres Personas que son, de manera imposible y perfecta, una sola.

Fuimos creados por el Amor, a imagen del Amor, para el fin del Amor. Lo cual significa que la inquietud que sentimos en nuestras relaciones más íntimas, el anhelo de algo más profundo y duradero de lo que cualquier vínculo humano puede ofrecer plenamente, no es un defecto de diseño. Es un instinto de retorno al hogar. Fuimos creados para un amor que se parece a la Trinidad: generoso, vaciado de sí mismo, eternamente vivo. Este domingo se nos recuerda de qué estamos hechos y para qué estamos hechos. Lleva eso contigo. Que sea más grande que tu preocupación, más firme que tu duda, y más cálido que lo que exija de ti la semana que comienza.

El Padre te envía porque el mundo te necesita. El Hijo camina el camino contigo porque así lo eligió. El Espíritu habita en ti porque le perteneces. Vete en paz.
