THE PIERRO GALLERY PRESENTS

JUDY TARGAN: A LIFE IN ART

A RETROSPECTIVE

The Pierro Gallery is proud to present a major retrospective celebrating the extraordinary eight-decade career of South Orange artist Judy Targan.

Spanning work from the 1940s through the present day, the exhibition traces Judy's artistic evolution from her early drawings and paintings created as a student at New York City's progressive Walden School through her children's rooms, limited-edition relief prints with inkless intaglio, and her current Landscapes/Landshapes oil paintings on wood. This retrospective is a tribute to the creative spirit that has shaped South Orange's cultural community for generations.
