BAPS SWAMINARAYAN AKSHARDAM TEMPLE

The largest Hindu temple in the United States and the second-largest in the world. Spanning over 183 acres, the massive complex features a stunning, intricately carved Mahamandir built entirely from Italian Carrara marble and pink sandstone without the use of structural steel.

There's a café for lunch on your own or a grab and go counter with refreshments. There is a dress code and no footwear inside the Mahamandir.
