

GIVE ME THIS MOUNTAIN!!

JOSHUA 14:6-13 (AMPC)

Matthew 17:20 (AMPC)

Josh.14:6-13

6 Then the people of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, You know what the Lord said to Moses the man of God concerning me and you in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to scout out the land. And I brought him a report as it was in my heart.

8 But my brethren who went up with me made the hearts of the people melt; yet I wholly followed the Lord my God.

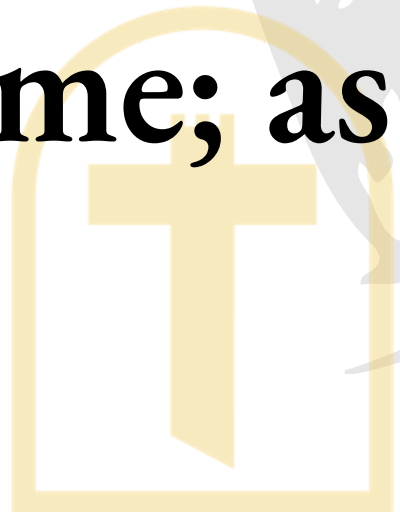

9 And Moses swore on that day, Surely the land on which your feet have walked shall be an inheritance to you and your children always, because you have wholly followed the Lord my God. [Deut. 1:35, 36.]

Unshakable Faith

10 And now, behold, the Lord has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years since the Lord spoke this word to Moses, while the Israelites wandered in the wilderness; and now, behold, I am this day eighty-five years old.

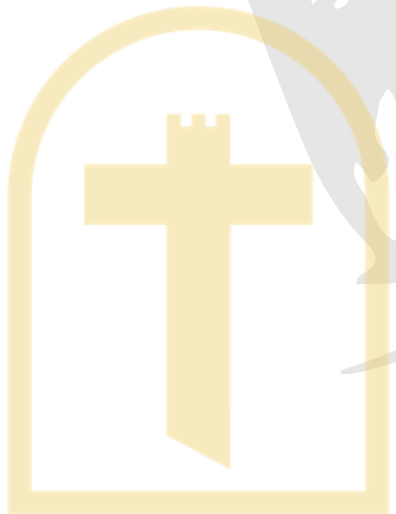

11 Yet I am as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so is my strength now for war and to go out and to come in.

Unshakable Faith

12 So now give me this hill country of which the Lord spoke that day. For you heard then how the [giantlike] Anakim were there and that the cities were great and fortified; if the Lord will be with me, I shall drive them out just as the Lord said.

13 Then Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

Unshakable Faith

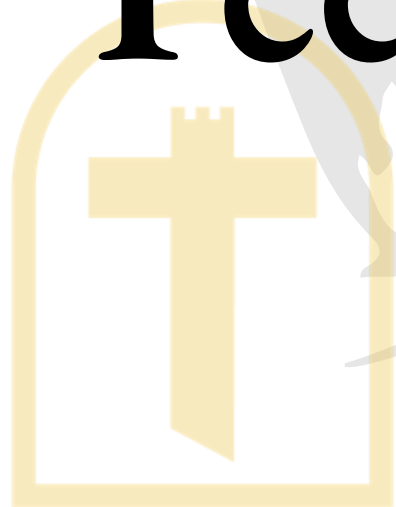

Matt. 17:20

He said to them, Because of the littleness of your faith [that is, your lack of firmly relying trust]. For truly I say to you, if you have faith [that is living] like a grain of mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, Move from here to yonder place, and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you.

40 Years Between the Promise & the Land

- The Rebellion at Kadesh Barnea (Num. 13–14)
- Israel rejected the good report, choosing fear over faith.
- The Wilderness Sentence (Num. 14:29–35)
- A 40-year detour while an entire generation aged and passed away.

Unshakable Faith

- The Daily Graveyard (Num. 26:63–65)
- An estimated 1.2M+ adult deaths—roughly 85 to 100 funerals every day.
- The Faith Endurance (Josh. 14:10–11)
- Joshua and Caleb outlived their peers without outliving the promise.
- The Crossing & Conquest (Josh. 3–12)
- Jordan crossed, Jericho taken, and the land secured by a new generation

REMEMBER (Josh 14:7-9)

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to scout out the land. And I brought him a report as it was in my heart.

8 But my brethren who went up with me made the hearts of the people melt; yet I wholly followed the Lord my God.

9 And Moses swore on that day, Surely the land on which your feet have walked shall be an inheritance to you and your children always, because you have wholly followed the Lord my God. [Deut. 1:35, 36.]

Numbers 23:19 (AMPC)

"God is not a man, that He should tell or act a lie, neither the son of man, that He should feel repentance or change His mind. Has He said and shall He not do it? Or has He spoken and shall He not make it good?"

Joshua 21:45 (AMPC)

"There failed not anything of any good thing which the Lord had spoken to the house of Israel; all came to pass."

Psalm 119:49–50 (AMPC).

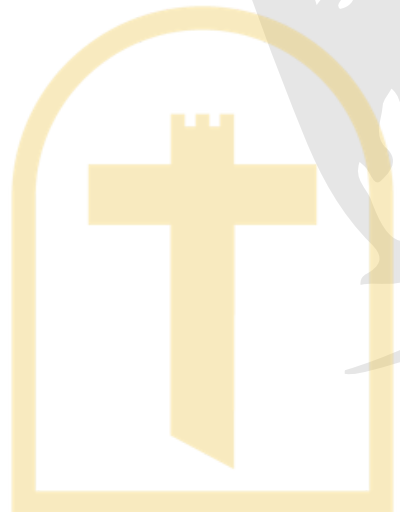

"Remember [fervently] the word and promise to Your servant, in which You have caused me to hope. This is my comfort and consolation in my affliction: that Your word has revived me and given me life."

Jeremiah 1:12 (AMPC).

"Then said the Lord to me, You have seen well, for I am alert and active, watching over My word to perform it."

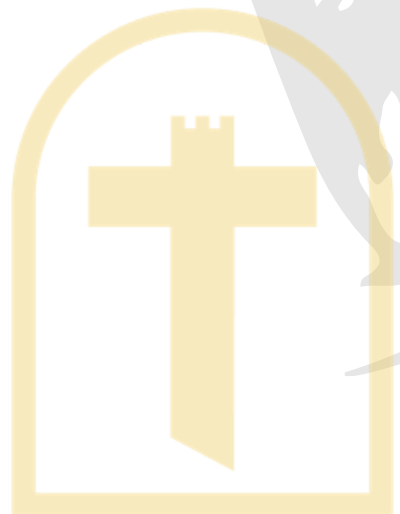

REMAIN (Josh 14:10-11)

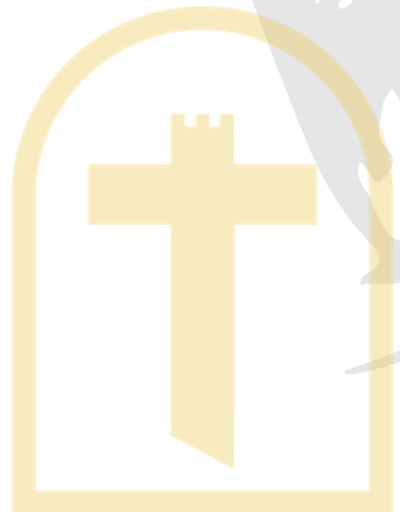

“Knowing you live in between the two is the key to a restful and wise Christian life... As I have said before, you live between the 'already' and the 'not yet.'”

 Paul David Tripp/New Morning Mercies

10 And now, behold, the Lord has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years since the Lord spoke this word to Moses, while the Israelites wandered in the wilderness; and now, behold, I am this day eighty-five years old.

11 Yet I am as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so is my strength now for war and to go out and to come in.

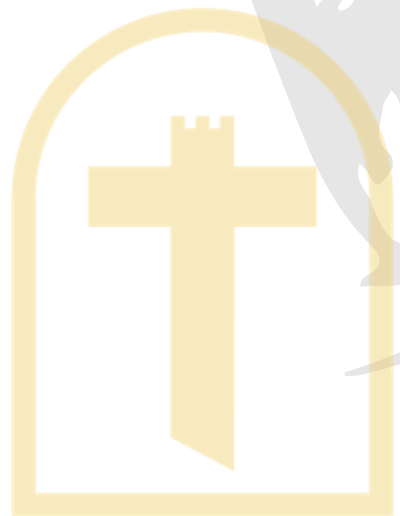

2 Cor. 4:16 Therefore we do not become discouraged (utterly spiritless, exhausted, and wearied out through fear). Though our outer man is [progressively] decaying and wasting away, yet our inner self is being [progressively] renewed day after day.

17 For our light, momentary affliction (this slight distress of the passing hour) is ever more and more abundantly preparing and producing and achieving for us an everlasting weight of glory [beyond all measure, excessively surpassing all comparisons and all calculations, a vast and transcendent glory and blessedness never to cease!]

18 Since we consider and look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are visible are temporal (brief and fleeting), but the things that are invisible are deathless and everlasting.

RECLAIM

(Joshua 14:12-13 & Mt. 17:20)

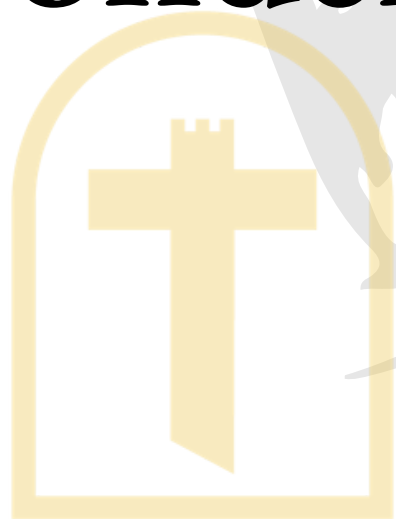

12 So now give me this hill country of which the Lord spoke that day. For you heard then how the [giantlike] Anakim were there and that the cities were great and fortified; if the Lord will be with me, I shall drive them out just as the Lord said.

13 Then Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

Mt. 17:20 He said to them, Because of the littleness of your faith [that is, your lack of firmly relying trust]. For truly I say to you, if you have faith [that is living] like a grain of mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, Move from here to yonder place, and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you.

Mt. 17:20
