IFAKI-EKITI IN DIASPORA, NORTH AMERICA names His Excellency, Asiwaju Segun Oni as Official Patron to Strengthen IEDNA Community Initiatives.

USA — February 18, 2026 — IFAKI-EKITI IN DIASPORA, NORTH AMERICA, proudly announces the appointment of its esteemed Patron, Asiwaju Oni, a distinguished leader and advocate for cultural heritage and community development. This partnership marks a significant milestone in the organization's history as it enters a year of expanded cultural advocacy and community support.

Asiwaju Oni is widely recognized for his exemplary leadership in business / philanthropy / public service, as well as a patron for the organization. In this role, he will offer strategic guidance. This appointment reflects the organization's commitment to strengthening ties between the diaspora and the homeland.

“We are incredibly honored to welcome Asiwaju Oni into our organization,” said Mr. Ajibade, the President of IFAKI-EKITI INDIASPORA, NORTHAMERICA. “Their lifelong commitment to social equity among other things aligns perfectly with our mission. Having a patron of such standing will inspire our members and help us reach new heights in our service to the town.”

The announcement comes as IFAKI-EKITI IN DIASPORA, NORTH AMERICA prepares for its first strategic meeting of the year, where Asiwaju Oni will be formally introduced. This year, the organization plans to launch several key initiatives, including Palliatives, Ifaki Games and other programs.
