FOUNDERS

Mark Wilson, originally from Portland, Texas, has dedicated his life to construction, honing his skills from the ground up. Starting at 16, he laid tile, later expanding into concrete work, framing, and full residential projects. This diverse experience has shaped his strong work ethic and unwavering commitment to quality.

With over 15 years of construction experience, Mark is renowned for his technical precision, reliability, and exceptional problem-solving abilities. His deep understanding of how a home functions as a system enables him to deliver durable and high-quality solutions.

Today, as the CEO of REVIV Restorations, Mark serves as the technical backbone of the company. He oversees project quality, trains crews, and ensures that every job meets the highest standards.

Chris Graham, originally from Indianapolis, Indiana, is a former NFL player, U.S. veteran, and police officer who transitioned into entrepreneurship with a reputation built on discipline, leadership, and service. With extensive experience in the roofing industry, along with over a decade in business development and operations, Chris brings a performance-driven approach to every part of REVIV.

His hands-on work with homeowners, contractors, and insurance partners gives him a deep understanding of the restoration process and what customers truly need. Chris is known for building strong teams, improving operational efficiency, and leading with integrity and transparency.

Today, As CO-FOUNDER Chris drives REVIV's vision and culture, focused on delivering honest inspections, quality workmanship, and a stress-free experience for every homeowner.

INSURANCE COMPANIES WE WORK WITH

REVIV

THESE ARE A FEW of the insurance companies we work with. We will meet with your adjuster and prepare estimates using the exact same software that insurance companies use - resulting in faster and better approvals for complex restoration projects.

Insurance companies may agree to repair your roof, but they will try to settle for the least amount possible, which can leave many needed repairs left undone.

We will provide the most complete reports and estimates to your insurance company to make sure your property is fully restored.

SERVING ASSOCIATION, UNIVERSITY, RELIGIOUS, COMMERCIAL, RESIDENTIAL, & GOVERNMENT CLIENTS

CUSTOMER REVIEWS

As a commercial property owner, finding a roofing company that is reliable, efficient, and transparent is rare, but REVIV exceeded every expectation. Their team completed a full commercial roof replacement on one of our multi-unit buildings, and the process was smooth from start to finish. Chris and Mark provided a clear scope of work, detailed timelines, and consistent communication throughout the project.

Their crew worked safely, maintained a clean job site, and minimized disruption for our tenants. The level of craftsmanship and attention to detail was exceptional. After completion, they walked us through a full report and photos, ensuring we understood exactly what was done and how it protects the building long-term. REVIV is now our go-to for all commercial roofing and storm restoration needs.

– James H., Property Manager

The quality of work is unmatched. Clean crew, respectful communication, and zero surprises. I recommend REVIV to every homeowner I know.
