Wall Raising in Easton

On February 11, we raised the first wall at our construction site at 26 Poquanticut Avenue in Easton with the help of future homeowner Erin and students from Southeastern Vocational Technical High School. We're looking forward to welcoming Erin to her new home!

Our Current Build Projects

808 & 810 Jerusalem Road, Cohasset

South Shore Habitat is pleased to partner with the town of Cohasset to build an affordable duplex-style home on the corner of Jerusalem Rd. and Hull St. The community has truly come together to welcome future homeowners Erin and Tandah. Visit our Volunteer Registration link below to view opportunities for you to help.

26 Poquanticut Avenue, Easton

In partnership with the town of Easton and the Town of Easton's Affordable Housing Trust, South Shore Habitat has demolished the house located at 26 Poquanticut Avenue and has poured the foundation for a safe and affordable colonial style single-family home. The home will have three bedrooms, two baths, and a walk out basement. Visit our Volunteer Registration link below to view opportunities for you to help.
