WHAT TO DO

The focal point of Las Vegas' attractions lies along "the Strip," a 6-kilometer stretch of Las Vegas Boulevard, spanning from the Stratosphere to the Mandalay Bay Hotel. The ideal way to experience this vibrant area is by strolling on foot with comfortable footwear, allowing you to take in all the sights. Alternatively, you can opt for one of the city buses that conveniently shuttle between the various attractions along the Strip.

THE STRAT ★

Discover a new city with a thrilling bird's-eye view at the STRAT, a 350-meter tower dominating the Strip since 1979. Best visited in the evening to marvel at the city lights. Don't miss the heart-stopping rides outside the tower, at the very top! Not for the faint of heart! Attraction schedules vary.

FREMONT STREET ★

Fremont Street, just north of South Las Vegas Boulevard, is the heart of Old Downtown Vegas. Its pedestrian section, between Main Street and 4th, hosts souvenir shops and iconic casino hotels like the Golden Gate (1906), Binion's Horseshoe (1931), Golden Nugget (1946), and Fitzgerald (1980). At night, experience the Fremont Street Experience - Viva Vision, a captivating sound and light show on a massive canopy screen (457m x 27m) suspended 27 meters above the crowd. The show lasts around 6 minutes and runs daily, every hour, starting from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., concluding around midnight. Special events and free concerts also take place there.

"WELCOME TO FABULOUS LAS VEGAS" SIGN

Capture the quintessential Vegas experience by posing next to the famous "Welcome to Fabulous Las Vegas" sign! It sits on the Strip, close to Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino's south entrance. Take the Deuce Bus or SDX to Mandalay Bay, then walk south for 15 minutes to reach the sign. If you prefer driving, there's a small 12-space parking lot, accessible only when heading south on Las Vegas Boulevard. RVs not allowed, but some park on the roadside when feasible.
