☆ Road-Map Book Report ☆

For this book report you will create a time-line in the shape of a road map. The road map will show important events from a particular period in history covered in your book in sequential order.

✓ Check off each requirement after you've completed it.

Requirements

☐ PART ONE: GRAPHIC ORGANIZER 1

Read a historical nonfiction book that is about a specific period in history. As you read your book, take notes on graphic organizer 1.

- ⊚ Include major events that took place, important dates, pertinent people, and details.
☐ PART TWO: GRAPHIC ORGANIZER 2

On graphic organizer 2, put the events from graphic organizer 1 into sequential order.

- ⊚ Write two complete sentences for each event, using your information from graphic organizer 1.

☐ PART THREE: DESIGNING YOUR ROAD MAP

⊚ DESIGNING THE ROAD

1. Use a piece of white construction paper (12 x 18 inches).
2. Design a road on this paper that has a beginning and an end.
3. This road could be a winding country road, a busy downtown street, a superhighway, or a design of your choice.
4. Use pencil when designing your road in case you need to make changes.

◎ DESIGNING THE STOPS

Once you have designed your road, add ten "stops" along the way. These stops can be:

◎ traffic lights	◎ exit ramps
◎ stop signs	◎ detours
◎ yield signs	◎ toll booths
◎ street names	◎ road hazards
◎ bridges	◎ stores and buildings

◎ ADDING THE INFORMATION

1. At each stop (starting with stop 1) write the title and date of event 1 from graphic organizer 2.
2. Under the title write the two complete sentences that accompany that particular event.
3. Continue along your stops, adding events in sequential order as you move along the road.
4. Make sure you have clearly marked a beginning and an end to your road map.
5. Add small icons (pictures) next to each stop that relate to that event.

◎ FINISHING TOUCHES

1. Create a title for your road map (e.g., Road Map to the Revolutionary War). Use creative lettering.
2. Add landscaping to your design to fill up empty spaces.
3. Color all pictures, roads, landscaping, and your title.
4. Use a fine black marker to trace over all writing.
5. Erase all pencil lines.
