Services are available at the time of need and for advance planning. This guide explains arrangements, individual services, merchandise, and additional charges.

Existing preneed agreements
Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

Your right to choose

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Basic services of funeral director and staff	$2,900

Includes initial response; an arrangement conference with the legally responsible person; vital statistics; preparation and filing of death certificates and permits; coordination with the crematory and other providers; and administrative and facility overhead. In-home arrangement conferences are additional.

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Basic services are not charged twice. Other packages also identify included basic services.

Payment and arrangements

Financial arrangements are completed when services are agreed upon. Full payment is required before services are scheduled or performed; delayed payment may delay or cancel scheduled services. We accept cash, cashier's checks, and major credit cards. We do not accept insurance assignments.

Payment requirements do not limit release to another funeral establishment as required by law. Your selected goods, services, outside charges, and total will appear on an itemized statement.
