Reflection on 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Here is an excerpt from an article titled: “11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A, Sunday June 14, 2026” found on the “Young Catholics” website—young-catholics.com:

Living a Life of Obedience

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds people that God calls them to live in obedience to Him. In the first reading, God speaks to Moses and tells him to remind the Israelites of all that He has done for them. He rescued them from slavery, guided them through the desert, and brought them to Mount Sinai. Now, He asks them to obey His commandments and keep His covenant. If they do, they will be His special people.

This passage shows that obedience is not just about rules. It is about being in a relationship with God. He loves His people and wants what is best for them. When the Israelites follow His ways, they show their love and trust in Him. They become a nation set apart, a light to others.

As Catholics, this message still applies. God calls His people to be holy and to follow His commandments. Living in obedience is not about fear but about love. It means choosing to live in a way that pleases God and brings peace to the soul. It is not always easy to obey. Temptations and struggles can make it difficult. But God does not leave His people alone. He gives them strength and guidance. He walks with them and helps them stay on the right path...

The Radical Love of God

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A highlights the great love of God. The second reading tells how Jesus died for sinners. He did not wait for people to be perfect. He gave His life while they were still far from God. This kind of love is hard to understand. People often love those who love them back. But God loves without condition. He does not wait for people to deserve His mercy. He offers it freely, no matter their past mistakes.

This love is a gift. It cannot be earned. It is not based on how good or worthy someone is. It comes from God’s mercy. Through Jesus, people can be forgiven and made new. This is the heart of the Gospel. As Catholics, this reading is a reminder to trust in God’s love. No one is too far gone. No sin is too great. God is always ready to forgive and welcome His people back. His love does not change. The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time...is a call to accept this love. It is also a call to share it with others. Just as God forgives, His people must also forgive. Just as He loves without limits, they must also love.

Embracing Our Role as Missionary Disciples

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A shows how Jesus calls and sends His disciples. The Gospel tells how Jesus sees the crowds and feels compassion for them. He knows they need guidance and care. So, He sends His disciples to preach, heal, and help. Jesus does not send them alone. He gives them the power to do His work. They do not need to rely on their own strength. They are called to trust in Him and share what they have received.

This mission is not just for the first disciples. It is for all Catholics. Everyone is called to share the good news. This does not always mean preaching. It can be small acts of kindness, prayer, or simply living a life that reflects Christ’s love. Sometimes, people feel unworthy or unprepared to spread their faith. But Jesus does not choose perfect people. He chooses ordinary people and gives them the grace to serve.

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A is a reminder that faith is meant to be shared. God’s love is not something to keep to oneself. It is meant to be given freely, just as it has been received. Jesus calls His people to be His hands and feet in the world.
