Reflection on Pentecost

Here is an excerpt from an article titled: "Pentecost Year A, Sunday May 24, 2026" found on the "Young Catholics" website—young-catholics.com:

The Power of the Holy Spirit

Pentecost Year A shows how the Holy Spirit changes everything. The disciples were gathered when suddenly a strong wind filled the house. Tongues of fire appeared, and they began speaking in different languages. People from many places heard them and understood in their own tongues. This was the power of the Holy Spirit at work. The coming of the Spirit gave the disciples courage. Before Pentecost, they were afraid and unsure of what to do. But after receiving the Spirit, they boldly spoke about Jesus. Thousands of people believed that day, and the Church began to grow.

The Spirit also gives gifts to help believers share the message of Jesus. These gifts are not just for personal benefit but for the good of the whole Church. The Spirit helps people teach, lead, serve, and encourage others in faith. Pentecost Year A reminds us that the Spirit is always with us. The same power that filled the disciples is available to us today. The Spirit gives us strength, wisdom, and courage to live as followers of Jesus.

A Constant Companion

Pentecost Year A reminds us that the Holy Spirit is always present. The Spirit was not just given to the disciples long ago. The Spirit continues to guide, teach, and strengthen all who follow Jesus. The Spirit does not work in dramatic ways alone. Sometimes, the Spirit speaks in quiet moments, through a feeling of peace or a gentle nudge in the right direction. The Spirit helps us pray, even when we do not know what to say. The Spirit gives us wisdom when we face hard choices.

In the Gospel for Pentecost Year A, Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit on His disciples. This shows that the Spirit is life-giving and always with them. He sends them out with a mission—to share His love and bring forgiveness to others. As believers, we are never alone. The Holy Spirit is always with us, leading us toward truth and helping us grow in faith. Pentecost Year A encourages us to listen to the Spirit and trust in God's guidance each day.

The Holy Spirit's Gift of Communication

Pentecost Year A shows how the Holy Spirit helps us communicate. The disciples spoke in many languages, and people from different places understood them. This was a sign that the message of Jesus was for everyone, not just one group. The Spirit still helps us share the Good News. Sometimes, this means using words to teach or encourage others. Other times, it means showing kindness, patience, and love. The way we live can speak louder than words.

In the world today, people are often divided by language, culture, or beliefs. The Spirit helps us reach across these barriers. When we listen to others and try to understand them, we show the love of Christ. Pentecost ...reminds us that the Gospel is for all people. The Spirit gives us the courage and wisdom to share it in ways that others can understand. When we trust in the Spirit, we can bring the love of Jesus to those around us.
