Pastor's Reflection

"It is an unusual word that is not native to the English or even the Latin liturgical vocabulary: the word "Alleluia." It sounds less like a meaningful word than the babbling of a child, and when it is sung with many notes for the final vowel, this impression becomes even stronger.

Alleluia, of course, has a meaning. It is a Hebrew word, and down the centuries the church has brought it with her, untranslated, (like "Amen"), as a product of the Jewish soil from which she herself sprang and as a reminder of her earliest days. The word is a cry of jubilation, meaning "Praise the Lord," and occurs frequently in the psalms.

But the translation does not explain why the church chose and retained this word from the Hebrew language of prayer in order to express her Easter Jubilation, even though in later centuries her own children did not understand the meaning. I think the church meant to say: "In the presence of the mystery that we celebrate on Easter, the mystery of our redemption, our usual intelligible vocabulary is inadequate; when faced with the superabundant mercy of God, we can only stammer in amazement like children."

This is how it is with us Christians: As we gaze at the Sun that has risen high over the darkness and cold of our Good Friday, all well-chosen words are useless. We can only stammer out our Alleluia of wonder and jubilation." (Balthasar Fischer)

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, we continue to raise our Alleluia in praise of God's great deeds of our redemption.

THANK YOU AND A REQUEST!

My great thanks to the more than 50 parish leaders who attended the March 16 deanery meeting with Bishop Caggiano and the pastors and lay leaders of the Greenwich parishes. You greatly enhanced the conversation by your energetic participation!

My request:

I invite you to gather again on April 9th at 6:30 pm to share what we heard at that meeting, so I can report accurately your concerns at my April 12th meeting with the other pastors and the Bishop.

Fr. Paul sj

Thank You

Thank you to Dr. Edward Sottile, whose hand-craftsmanship has brought forth our new ambry for displaying the Holy Oils, and our new paschal candlestand. Ed's gifts to our parish community greatly enhanced our Holy Week celebrations, and we are very grateful.

- Fr. Paul sj

Parents are the first witnesses of the faith. What does that mean? How can parents witness faith effectively? Listen to Bishop Frank Caggiano's welcome message and learn more about what it means to be a witness of your faith – first!

10 Saints who can bring us closer to the Eucharist.

One would guess that most saints would have a devotion to the Eucharist, but there are 10 saints to learn more about and ask to intercede for us during the National Eucharistic Revival.

(FOURTH) St. Ignatius of Antioch

This Syrian-born martyr, who gave himself the nickname "God-bearer" because of his certainty of God's presence within him and who may have been a disciple of St. John the Evangelist, became bishop of Antioch about 69. Eventually he was arrested and sent to Rome, where his strong desire for martyrdom was fulfilled when he was thrown to the lions in the Colosseum. In seven letters written to Christians in Asia Minor and Rome, he stressed the need to heal Church conflicts, the authority of local bishops and the Eucharist as a source of unity.
