Pastor's Reflection

On this Labor Day weekend, I share with you some reflections from Pope Leo on the dignity of human labor.

"Work must be a source of hope and life, allowing the expression of individual creativity and capacity for good."

"Let me state once again that the most important way to help the disadvantaged is to assist them in finding a good job, so that they can lead a more dignified life by developing their abilities and contributing their fair share."

"Human beings are called to be co-workers in the work of creation, not merely passive consumers of content generated by artificial technology. Our dignity lies in our ability to reflect, choose freely, love unconditionally and enter into authentic relationships with others."

"At the center of any work dynamic there should be neither capital, nor market laws nor profit, but the person, the family and their well-being, to which everything else is functional."

"Sometimes we are so caught up in our occupations that we do not think about the Lord or the Church; but the very fact of working with dedication, trying to give our best, and also — for you lay people — with love for your family, for your children, gives glory to the Lord."

"Each of us carries out our task and we praise God precisely by doing it well, with commitment."

"Be a living presence in the Church in the places where you work, In international institutions, in diplomacy, in organizations, in the world of work. Be men and women who build bridges, while others raise walls. Be credible in the silence of deeds, rather than visible in your words. Be a sign, not merely a presence."

Blessed weekend of rest and re-creation for each of you.

In Christ
--Fr. Paul D. Holland, S.J.
Pastor, St. Michael the Archangel Parish

Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) News

During the June 2026 Parish Pastoral Council meeting, three new members were elected to serve on the council for three-year terms, commencing July 1, 2026: Joanne Collins-Smee, Karla Hernandez and Alanna Hynes Degisi. You can read the notes below to get to know these new council members!

Additionally, Marianne Gattinella was elected to a second three-year term on the PPC and has very generously agreed to serve a second year as PPC Chair for 2026-27.

Thank you to all the nominees who expressed interest in serving. We hope they will consider sharing their time and talent with the many parish ministries and organizations which are eager for new membership and participation. The upcoming parish ministry fair days are the following Sundays: September 20th, October 4th and October 11th showcasing the many ways to "get involved" in the life of the parish.

Lastly, sincerest appreciation to two outgoing PPC members: Jill Gussis and Cristina Ventosa. Jill has served on the council for several years focusing on parish communications strategy, branding and procedures. She also devoted her talents to the parish's Jubilee of Hope events and gala. Cristina enriched the council's focus and understanding of her many parish volunteer efforts, including coordination of Thursday Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Women's Emmaus, Walking with Purpose among others.

Fr. Paul Holland, S. J.

Joanne Collins-Smee grew up in the Bronx, NY and moved to Greenwich when she and her husband Tim were married. She has three daughters who all went to Greenwich Catholic School where the family got its first introduction to St Michael's Church and community. She is retired from a career in technology services leadership (at IBM, the Federal Government and Xerox) and now sits on a technology company board. She is grateful for the opportunity to serve through the Parish Council where she is hoping to give back even a fraction of the gifts we have received being part of this parish community.

A parishioner of St. Michael's, Karla Hernandez brings a lifetime of service-oriented leadership to the PPC, having founded Pfizer's NY Hispanic Corporate Resource Group, served on the Emory University Parents' Council, and dedicated her 25-year career to launching healthcare innovations. Born in Costa Rica and rooted in her Catholic faith, Karla is married and the mother of a 21-year-old. She is grateful for the trust of her fellow parishioners and looks forward to contributing to the role the parish plays in anchoring family and spiritual life, committing to serve St. Michael's with humility, purpose, and joy.

Alanna Hynes Degisi grew up in Greenwich and joined the parish with her husband Phil when they moved to town in 2015. She has spent over 20 years in the financial services industry as a strategy leader. Alanna has two sons, Jack and Charlie, and her strong desire for them to have a deep and meaningful relationship with Christ and a strong connection to the Catholic faith is her primary motivation for joining the PPC. She is passionate about building community at the parish and creating opportunities for all parishioners to engage more fully in the church community.

A prayer for back-to-school week

Master and Teacher,

Bless the students who will have trouble settling down this week, whose minds are still at the beach or at grandma's swimming pool, or the amusement park or soccer camp.

Bless those who sit nervously in class: those who are new in school and those who never read anything over the summer and know a test is coming anyway.

Bless those who will struggle, those who will succeed, and those who get lost in the crowd.

Bless the new friendships that will begin on day one and bless those cherished friendships that will be renewed.

Bless them all with compassion, that they may root for the underdog, celebrate those who accomplish much, and pray fervently for each other.

Bless them with an environment free from bullying, needless competition, and petty jealousy.

Help them, Lord, to fall in love with learning.

Bless the parents of these students, their first teachers in the ways of faith. Give them patience when the homework takes too long, give them the courage to understand that their children are not perfect and give them the courage to discipline with love. May they abdicate less and partner more.

And we beg you, Lord, to bring these children safely home at the end of the day, the week, or the semester. Keep them free from violence – at home and at school – on the bus and on the streets – and guide them home to the waiting arms of those who loved them first.

Finally, Lord, we pray in the thanksgiving for the men and women who have already been hard at work straightening desks, taping names to cubbies, painting lockers, planning classes, cleaning rooms, decorating bulletin boards, hanging posters, and studying test scores. Bless these servants with peace, patience, persistence, and your Spirit, that they may be Your presence to our young people, Your hands, and Your voice.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord: teacher, servant, and source of all hope. Amen.
