OFFERTORY

Your Stewardship at work...

In this month of Thanksgiving, we are very grateful for your generosity. The parish has experienced a 9% increase in offertory contributions since the start of our new fiscal year on July 1st. This additional financial support, as well as the funds raised at the Jubilee Celebration, has enabled the parish to operate in a more sustainable manner and to hire an experienced Youth Minister. This newly created position will build up and advance the formation of our teens and accomplish a key aspect of our Parish Pastoral Plan. Keeping and continuing to engage our youth after the Sacrament of Confirmation is essential to the advancement of our lifelong journey of faith formation.

These investments are only possible through YOUR willingness to heed the call for additional financial support. Employing a Youth Minister is putting your offertory sacrifice and personal stewardship to the very best use!

We continue to ask all parish families to prayerfully consider a weekly offertory commitment of at least $40 as full participation from our parish community would allow for further investment in the spiritual offerings the parish can provide to our community.

Paul J. Huston, Finance Council Chairman

Pastor's Reflection

"My kingdom is not of this world"

Though it is not necessarily a part of Kingship since Castles are not seen in the majority of the thousands of years of kingdoms, I can't help but imagine a castle identifying with a King. I saw a documentary on Middle age castles in England and how they are designed as fortifications that become the heart of the security of the king and his kingdom. The program did a wonderful job of helping you get the understanding of how it is in many different ways fortified with some 4 or more levels that must be penetrated before it is breached. When I came to appreciate it, I had the feeling that there was nothing more secure than a well planned and built castle. I wondered how Middle age weaponry and tactics could ever successfully take down a king and his attendants. But as we well know castles fall and so do Kingdoms. Even the Temple of Jerusalem fell more than once and is now lying beneath a Mosque; and that was the House of God, or Castle of God; or was it? As so many theological answers seem to be, I say Yes and No. Yes, Jesus called it "my Father's house" and yes, it is; When the Word of God, Jesus Christ says something it can not be anything but so. But it was the earthly forerunner of the True house of God. The temple of Jerusalem can be seen as a Type, of the Kingdom residence so to speak, the gathering place of Jewish sacrifice and divine worship. When David attempted to build a house in which God would reside in the symbol of the Arc of the Covenant, God related to him through the prophet Samuel that David's son will build the house not made of human hands worthy of His residing. This was a prophecy of the Church which He will raise up in the person of the Son of David, Jesus Christ.

The kingdoms of this world will always fall weather they are ruled by a king, sheikh, president or dictator. There are no fortresses strong enough or far enough away that they cannot be plundered. The kings of worldly Kingdoms are always crippled by their own human weakness, even the best of them. Their subjects of a worldly kingdom will always affect, to some degree in a negative way, the stability of that kingdom. Only a Kingdom beyond the effects of this fallen world and weakness of human nature in its unsanctified state can be said to be secure to be an everlasting kingdom.

This Sunday we celebrate Jesus Christ the King of the Universe. Not the king of the earth, but the King of all creation. He who spoke creation into being and gave His all to redeem it, is now reigning over all creation. One day that will be fully realized by every creature and "every knee will bow in heaven and earth to Him is King and Lord.

We who now, prior to His return, come to know Him as the One, perfectly benevolent King of a kingdom that can not be corrupted or destroyed, have every reason to have Hope and rejoice. When we celebrated Thanksgiving with our families I hope instead of discussing the divisive subject of politics and the Kingdoms of this world; I hope you gave thanks to and for the One whose Kingdom is not of this world.

The Bishops' Special Pastoral Message

As pastors, we the bishops of the United States are bound to our people by ties of communion and compassion in Our Lord Jesus Christ. We are disturbed when we see among our people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. We are saddened by the state of contemporary debate and the vilification of immigrants. We are concerned about the conditions in detention centers and the lack of access to pastoral care. We lament that some immigrants in the United States have arbitrarily lost their legal status. We are troubled by threats against the sanctity of houses of worship and the special nature of hospitals and schools. We are grieved when we meet parents who fear being detained when taking their children to school and when we try to console family members who have already been separated from their loved ones.

Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity.

Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation's immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together.

We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks.

The Church's teaching rests on the foundational concern for the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). As pastors, we look to Sacred Scripture and the example of the Lord Himself, where we find the wisdom of God's compassion. The priority of the Lord, as the Prophets remind us, is for those who are most vulnerable: the widow, the orphan, the poor, and the stranger (Zechariah 7:10). In the Lord Jesus, we see the One who became poor for our sake (2 Corinthians 8:9), we see the Good Samaritan who lifts us from the dust (Luke 10:30-37), and we see the One who is found in the least of these (Matthew 25). The Church's concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord's command to love as He has loved us (John 13:34).

To our immigrant brothers and sisters, we stand with you in your suffering, since, when one member suffers, all suffer (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:26). You are not alone!

We note with gratitude that so many of our clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. We urge all people of good will to continue and expand such efforts.

We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

As disciples of the Lord, we remain men and women of hope, and hope does not disappoint! (cf. Romans 5:5)

May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ.

FAITH FORMATION

A lifelong journey, childhood-teens-adults

*To all our families... Count blessings.
Give thanks & Share love.
Wishing you an abundance of joy this Thanksgiving.*

Blessings to the families of Saint Michael Parish. My name is Laurie Muñoz. I am currently one of the Directors of Discipleship within The Seton Collaborative of the Bridgeport Diocese.

Under the supervision of Fr. Paul, I am excited to assist in implementing a ministry for young people containing religious-based programs, continued faith formation, and engaging activities to foster faith-nurturing relationships for youth, their families and the community of Saint Michael's.

I humbly bring a willingness to share my 30+ years of experience working with youth, most recently at my home parish in Pearl City, Hawai'i as a Parish Ministry Coordinator. I moved to Connecticut in December of last year and though it's COLDER, I love watching the backyard woodland creatures.

I give thanks to God for His abundant blessings which includes this opportunity to be a part of the Saint Michael Parish community.

"How good it is, how pleasant, where the people dwell as one!" - Psalm 133.1

Holiness at Home

Stories

Stories that include a child or family member's journey of faith can provide examples of how everyone's relationship with Christ can be ever-growing and lifelong.

Trials and Tribulations

Stories can be about family trials and tribulations and faith's role in perseverance and finding hope. When there are setbacks in life, our relationships can be a meaningful source of stability and guidance; this is especially the case with Jesus Christ. Telling your children about your faith and encounters with Christ when you needed him the most can be powerful.

For more on how stories help carry on family traditions and teach the value of remembering the past that include a child or family member's journey of faith, see Stories on Creating a Catholic Culture at Home on First Witnesses. firstwitnesses.org/stories

Christmas Nativity Performance

We would like to invite the children of St. Michael parish to be part of the Christmas nativity performance on December 21st during the 9:45am Mass. Three rehearsals will be held leading up to the performance.

If your son or daughter would like to be part of our Christmas Nativity, please find the registration form in the entrance of the church, or contact Loren in the Faith Formation office for more details.
