A MESSAGE FROM FR. JAY NUTHULAPATI UN MENSAJE DEL P. JAY NUTHULAPATI

He Was Made Known to Them in the Breaking of the Bread

The Third Sunday of Easter places us on the road with two discouraged disciples—Cleopas and his companion—walking toward Emmaus with heavy hearts. The Emmaus story is not just a moment in the past; it is the pattern of Christian life today. How often do we walk our own “Emmaus roads”—moments of confusion, disappointment, or exhaustion—wondering where God is. Yet the Gospel reminds us that Christ is never absent. He draws near quietly, patiently, and lovingly, especially when our hearts are burdened.

Two moments change everything for the disciples:

- The Word: Jesus opens the Scriptures, helping them see God’s plan with new eyes. Their hearts burn because truth is rekindled within them.
- The Eucharist: In the breaking of the bread, their eyes are opened. They recognize Him—not in a vision, not in a feeling, but in the sacramental gift He left for His Church.

Every Mass is our Emmaus moment. We bring our worries, our hopes, our questions. Christ meets us in His Word, strengthens us in His Body and Blood, and sends us back—just like the disciples—to share the Good News with joy.

As we continue our Easter journey, may our hearts burn again with faith. “Stay with us, Lord, for it is nearly evening.” May this be our prayer throughout the week.

Se les dio a conocer al partir el pan

El Tercer Domingo de Pascua nos sitúa en el camino junto a dos discípulos desanimados —Cleofás y su compañero—, que caminan hacia Emaús con el corazón apesadumbrado. La historia de Emaús no es solo un acontecimiento del pasado; es el modelo de la vida cristiana en la actualidad. ¡Cuántas veces recorreremos nuestros propios «caminos de Emaús» —momentos de confusión, decepción o agotamiento— preguntándonos dónde está Dios! Sin embargo, el Evangelio nos recuerda que Cristo nunca está ausente. Él se acerca silenciosa, paciente y amorosamente, especialmente cuando nuestros corazones están agobiados.

Dos momentos lo cambian todo para los discípulos:

- La Palabra: Jesús abre las Escrituras, ayudándoles a ver el plan de Dios con nuevos ojos. Sus corazones arden, pues la verdad se reaviva en su interior.
- La Eucaristía: En la fracción del pan, se les abren los ojos. Lo reconocen —no en una visión, no en un sentimiento, sino en el don sacramental que Él dejó para su Iglesia.

Cada Misa es nuestro momento de Emaús. Llevamos nuestras preocupaciones, nuestras esperanzas, nuestras preguntas. Cristo sale a nuestro encuentro en su Palabra, nos fortalece con su Cuerpo y su Sangre, y nos envía de regreso —tal como a los discípulos— para compartir la Buena Nueva con alegría.

Mientras continuamos nuestro camino pascual, que nuestros corazones vuelvan a arder de fe. Quédate con nosotros, Señor, pues ya atardece. Que esta sea nuestra oración a lo largo de la semana.
