A MESSAGE FROM FR. JAY NUTHULAPATI UN MENSAJE DEL P. JAY NUTHULAPATI

The Ascension of the Lord

The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord lifts our eyes and hearts to the mystery of Christ who, having completed His earthly mission, returns to the Father and opens the way for us to follow. The Ascension is not Jesus “leaving us,” but Jesus exalting our humanity, carrying our wounds, our hopes, and our destiny into the very heart of God.

Before ascending, Jesus gives His disciples a mission: “You will be my witnesses... to the ends of the earth.” This is not a suggestion—it is our identity. The Church exists to proclaim Christ, to heal, to reconcile, to serve, and to bring hope where the world sees only darkness.

The Ascension reminds us of three powerful truths:

- Christ reigns—not from afar, but from within our lives, guiding His Church through the Holy Spirit.
- Our mission continues—every act of mercy, every word of encouragement, every moment of forgiveness becomes part of God’s saving work.
- He prepares a place for us—our true home is with God, and Jesus has gone ahead to open the way.

As we prepare for Pentecost, may we renew our commitment to be joyful witnesses of the Gospel. May the Holy Spirit strengthen our parish family, our ministries, and our service to the poor, the young, and the vulnerable. Let us lift our hearts with confidence, knowing that where Christ has gone, we hope to follow.

La Ascensión del Señor

La Solemnidad de la Ascensión del Señor eleva nuestros ojos y corazones al misterio de Cristo que, después de cumplir su misión en la tierra, regresa al Padre y abre para nosotros el camino hacia la gloria. La Ascensión no significa que Jesús “nos abandona,” sino que exalta nuestra humanidad, llevando nuestras heridas, esperanzas y destino al corazón mismo de Dios.

Antes de ascender, Jesús entrega a sus discípulos una misión: “Ustedes serán mis testigos... hasta los confines de la tierra.” No es una sugerencia; es nuestra identidad. La Iglesia existe para anunciar a Cristo, sanar, reconciliar, servir y llevar esperanza donde el mundo solo ve oscuridad.

La Ascensión nos recuerda tres verdades profundas:

- Cristo reina—no desde lejos, sino desde dentro de nuestras vidas, guiando a su Iglesia por medio del Espíritu Santo.
- Nuestra misión continúa—cada acto de misericordia, cada palabra de ánimo, cada gesto de perdón forma parte de la obra salvadora de Dios.
- Él nos prepara un lugar—nuestro verdadero hogar está con Dios, y Jesús ha ido delante para abrirnos el camino.

Mientras nos acercamos a Pentecostés, renovemos nuestro compromiso de ser testigos alegres del Evangelio. Que el Espíritu Santo fortalezca nuestra familia parroquial, nuestros ministerios y nuestro servicio a los pobres, los jóvenes y los más vulnerables. Elevemos el corazón con confianza, sabiendo que donde Cristo ha ido, nosotros esperamos seguir.
