A MESSAGE FROM FR. JAY NUTHULAPATI UN MENSAJE DEL P. JAY NUTHULAPATI

Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

Dear Parish Family,

Today we celebrate the Epiphany — the great revelation of Jesus Christ to the nations. The Magi, guided only by a star and a longing for truth, arrive at the humble home of the Holy Family and fall to their knees in adoration. Their journey reminds us that God is always drawing every heart toward His light, often through unexpected signs and quiet invitations.

The Magi brought gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. But the greatest gift they offered was their openness to be led, their willingness to search, and their courage to bow before the Child who would change the world. In their story, we find our own. Each of us is invited to bring our gifts — our faith, our struggles, our hopes, our time, our compassion — and lay them before the Lord.

As we begin a new year, the Epiphany challenges us to ask:

- What star is God placing before me?
- Where is He calling me to go deeper, to trust more, to serve more generously?

May we, like the Magi, rise and follow the light. May our homes become places where Christ is welcomed, honored, and shared. And may our parish continue to shine as a beacon of hope for all who seek God's presence.

Wishing you and your families a blessed Epiphany and a grace-filled New Year.

May the light of Christ guide your steps and fill your hearts with peace.

In the Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Jay Nuthulapati

Solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor

Querida familia parroquial:

Hoy celebramos la Epifanía, la gran revelación de Jesucristo a las naciones. Los Reyes Magos, guiados únicamente por una estrella y un anhelo de verdad, llegan al humilde hogar de la Sagrada Familia y se postran en adoración. Su viaje nos recuerda que Dios siempre atrae cada corazón hacia su luz, a menudo a través de señales inesperadas e invitaciones silenciosas.

Los Reyes Magos trajeron regalos de oro, incienso y mirra. Pero el mayor regalo que ofrecieron fue su apertura a ser guiados, su disposición a buscar y su valentía para postrarse ante el Niño que cambiaría el mundo. En su historia, encontramos la nuestra. Cada uno de nosotros está invitado a ofrecer nuestros dones: nuestra fe, nuestras luchas, nuestras esperanzas, nuestro tiempo, nuestra compasión, y ponerlos ante el Señor.

Al comenzar un nuevo año, la Epifanía nos desafía a preguntarnos:

- ¿Qué estrella está poniendo Dios ante mí?
- ¿A dónde me llama a ir más allá, a confiar más, a servir con mayor generosidad?

Que, como los Reyes Magos, nos levantemos y sigamos la luz. Que nuestros hogares se conviertan en lugares donde Cristo sea bienvenido, honrado y compartido. Y que nuestra parroquia siga brillando como un faro de esperanza para todos los que buscan la presencia de Dios.

Les deseamos a ustedes y a sus familias una bendita Epifanía y un Año Nuevo lleno de gracia.

Que la luz de Cristo guíe sus pasos y llene sus corazones de paz.

En el Corazón de Jesús,

P. Jay Nuthulapati
