WEEKLY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Sacred Heart

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament Thurs
after the 8:30 AM Mass until noon.

On this 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time God has promised us a glorious feast high on Mt. Zion, where tears and death are banished, and "juicy rich food and pure choice wines" have been prepared.

Today's Psalm 23 presents a similar picture of verdant pastures where we are given "repose and refreshment" as we enjoy "the table spread before [us]". Here the Lord invites us to dwell in His house of "goodness and kindness" forever.

- Does my desire for eternal life with God prompt me to live a virtuous life?
- I will praise and thank God for his promised gift.

In today's Gospel, Jesus' parable of the generous king causes concern since the invited guests have refused his invitation. In his eagerness to share the glorious feast, the King invites outsiders. Many come, but one person arrives unprepared and is cast out. Jesus offers us a shocking picture of both disinterested and unprepared individuals.

The good news is that we have all been invited to vibrant membership in the Kingdom of God and the heavenly feast. Surprisingly, many, having been distracted by a variety of options, are totally disinterested in God's offer.

- Am I eager to receive God's gifts?
- Do I respond by living according to Jesus' law of love?

The garment of virtuous living is necessary to be admitted into the king's feast.

- Does the Christian ethic of moral living influence how I live my life?

Jesus gave his life that we might live, not by basking in creature comforts, but by allowing His life, love and right judgment to fill us. Jesus has brought heaven down to earth...but it seems that we have stopped wanting it...we've stopped desiring a Christian society, a society of life-giving love and mercy.

Having been caught in the materialism of this age, many Christians are settling for too little. It is time to seek God's Kingdom where mercy, love, justice and peace reign. By neglecting to do so, we will end up like the man who was bound and cast into darkness.

Now is the time to take action. It is time to stoke the flame of truth and love revealed in Jesus. This ardent love has already been ignited by the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and so we pray...

"Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like unto thine."

M.S.

En este 28.^o domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Dios nos ha prometido un banquete glorioso en lo alto del monte Sion, donde se destierran las lágrimas y la muerte, y se han preparado "manjares suculentos y vinos exquisitos".

El Salmo 23 de hoy presenta una imagen similar de verdes praderas donde recibimos "reposo y alivio" mientras disfrutamos de "la mesa preparada ante [nosotros]". Aquí, el Señor nos invita a habitar para siempre en su casa de "bondad y misericordia".

- ¿Mi deseo de vida eterna con Dios me impulsa a vivir una vida virtuosa?
- Alabaré y daré gracias a Dios por el don que ha prometido.

En el Evangelio de hoy, la parábola de Jesús sobre el rey generoso causa inquietud, ya que los invitados han rechazado su invitación. En su afán por compartir el glorioso banquete, el Rey invita a personas de fuera.

Muchos acuden, pero una persona llega sin la preparación adecuada y es expulsada. Jesús nos ofrece una imagen impactante tanto de quienes se muestran indiferentes como de quienes no están preparados.

La buena noticia es que todos hemos sido invitados a formar parte activa del Reino de Dios y del banquete celestial. Sorprendentemente, muchos, distraídos por diversas opciones, se muestran totalmente indiferentes ante la oferta de Dios.

- ¿Anhelo recibir los dones de Dios?
- ¿Respondo viviendo según la ley del amor de Jesús?

El vestido de una vida virtuosa es necesario para ser admitido en el banquete del rey.

- ¿Influye la ética cristiana de una vida moral en mi propia forma de vivir?

Jesús dio su vida para que nosotros viviéramos, no deleitándonos en comodidades materiales, sino permitiendo que su vida, su amor y su recto juicio nos llenen. Jesús ha traído el cielo a la tierra... pero parece que hemos dejado de quererlo... hemos dejado de desear una sociedad cristiana, una sociedad de amor y misericordia que da vida.

Atrapados en el materialismo de esta época, muchos cristianos se conforman con demasiado poco. Es hora de buscar el Reino de Dios, donde reinan la misericordia, el amor, la justicia y la paz. Si descuidamos hacerlo, terminaremos como aquel hombre que fue atado y arrojado a las tinieblas.

Ahora es el momento de actuar. Es hora de avivar la llama de la verdad y el amor revelados en Jesús. Este amor ardiente ya ha sido encendido por el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, y por eso oramos...

"Jesús, manso y humilde de corazón, haz mi corazón semejante al tuyo"

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Virtue = Strength: Forming Hearts for Life and Heaven

At St. John the Baptist Catholic School, we are blessed to partner with Virtue = Strength, a program that helps our students grow in virtue and live out their Catholic faith each day.

Our goal is simple: to prepare our students for life and grow closer to God.

Through Virtue = Strength, our students are encouraged to:

LEARN the Virtues

We help our students develop good habits and strong character so they can choose what is right.

LOVE our Lord

Through prayer, gratitude, and service, our students deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ.

LIVE the Faith

We challenge our students to put their Catholic faith into action—not only at school, but also at home and in the world around them.

Each week, we highlight a virtue and encourage our students to practice it in meaningful ways. We also identify the opposing vice and help students understand how they can overcome weaknesses through God's grace and intentional choices.

Our Catholic education is about more than academics. We want our students to know the truth, love Jesus, practice virtue, serve others, and become the people God is calling them to be.

Learn the Virtues. Love our Lord. Live the Faith.

Together, we are preparing for life and forming for heaven!
