A MESSAGE FROM FR. JAY NUTHULAPATI

UN MENSAJE DEL P. JAY NUTHULAPATI

Honoring Our Fathers — Biological and Spiritual

On this Father's Day, my heart is filled with deep gratitude as I reflect on the beautiful vocation of fatherhood — both spiritual and natural. As your spiritual father, I came among you with one desire: to love you, to serve you, and to care for your spiritual needs with the heart of Christ. It has been one of the greatest joys, honors, and privileges of my priesthood to walk with you, to pray with you, and to be part of your lives.

Just as God the Father has loved me and sent me, so I have loved you without distinction or difference. You have welcomed me, supported me, and loved me as I am. For this, I am profoundly grateful. Your faith, your trust, and your affection have strengthened my vocation and enriched my ministry in ways words cannot fully express.

Today, I also want to honor and appreciate all the fathers of our parish community. You have been entrusted with a sacred mission. Through the gift of procreation, you have become coworkers with God in the mystery of creation. The life of every child is a pure and precious gift — a blessing that God has placed in your hands to protect, nurture, and guide.

To all Christian fathers: Thank you for your sacrifices, your sleepless nights, your hard work, and your quiet strength. Thank you for the love you pour into your families, often unseen but always felt. Thank you for being protectors of your homes, guardians of faith, and examples of courage and integrity.

We also remember with gratitude the fathers who serve our nation, who defend our freedoms, and who place the safety of others before their own. Your dedication reflects the heart of Christ, who came “not to be served, but to serve.”

Fatherhood — whether lived in the home or in the priesthood — is a calling that mirrors the love of God Himself. A father's love is steady, patient, forgiving, and strong. A father's presence gives confidence. A father's blessing gives life.

May the example of St. Joseph inspire every father to lead with humility, faith, and love.

To all fathers, and to all who have been father figures in our lives: We honor you. We thank you. We pray for you. May God bless you abundantly today and always.

Honrando a nuestros padres: biológicos y espirituales

En este Día del Padre, mi corazón se llena de profunda gratitud al reflexionar sobre la hermosa vocación de la paternidad, tanto espiritual como natural. Como su padre espiritual, llegué a ustedes con un único deseo: amarlos, servirlos y atender sus necesidades espirituales con el corazón de Cristo. Ha sido una de las mayores alegrías, honores y privilegios de mi sacerdocio caminar con ustedes, orar con ustedes y formar parte de sus vidas.

Así como Dios Padre me ha amado y enviado, yo los he amado a ustedes sin distinción ni diferencia. Me han acogido, apoyado y amado tal como soy. Por ello, estoy profundamente agradecido. Su fe, su confianza y su afecto han fortalecido mi vocación y enriquecido mi ministerio de maneras que las palabras no pueden expresar plenamente.

Hoy también quiero honrar y agradecer a todos los padres de nuestra comunidad parroquial. Se les ha confiado una misión sagrada. Mediante el don de la procreación, se han convertido en colaboradores de Dios en el misterio de la creación. La vida de cada niño es un don puro y precioso, una bendición que Dios ha puesto en sus manos para proteger, criar y guiar.

A todos los padres cristianos: Gracias por sus sacrificios, sus noches de insomnio, su arduo trabajo y su fortaleza silenciosa. Gracias por el amor que brindan a sus familias, a menudo invisible pero siempre presente. Gracias por ser protectores de sus hogares, guardianes de la fe y ejemplos de valentía e integridad.

Recordamos también con gratitud a los padres que sirven a nuestra nación, que defienden nuestras libertades y que anteponen la seguridad de los demás a la suya propia. Su entrega refleja el corazón de Cristo, quien vino «no a ser servido, sino a servir».

La paternidad —ya sea vivida en el hogar o en el sacerdocio— es una vocación que refleja el amor de Dios mismo. El amor de un padre es constante, paciente, perdonador y fuerte. La presencia de un padre infunde confianza. La bendición de un padre da vida.

Que el ejemplo de San José inspire a todo padre a guiar con humildad, fe y amor.

A todos los padres, y a todos aquellos que han sido figuras paternas en nuestras vidas: los honramos, les damos las gracias y oramos por ustedes. Que Dios los bendiga abundantemente hoy y siempre.
