My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, And I desire to receive you into my soul. Catholic Choral Society Spring Generations Concerts

The annual spring concerts of the Catholic Choral Society of Scranton will be presented on Friday evening, May 20 at 7:00 PM at St. Ignatius Church at 339 North Maple Avenue in Kingston and on Sunday evening, May 22 at 7:00 PM at Mary Mother of God Parish at Holy Rosary Church at 316 William Street in Scranton.

On Friday evening, May 20, at St Ignatius Church in Kingston, the Choral Society will host the Wyoming Valley West Middle School Spartans directed by Scott Coates. On Sunday evening, May 22 at Holy Rosary Church the Choral Society will host the Western Wayne Middle School Select Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Covaleski with Marty Ort as accompanist.

The Catholic Choral Society, marking its 73rd season, is comprised of members from Luzerne, Lackawanna, Wayne, Susquehanna and Wyoming counties. The director of the Catholic Choral Society is Ann Manganiello and the accompanist is Kim Gnall.

There is no admittance fee, however, a free will offering will be taken.

Board members assisting president Brenda Grunza in arranging the concert include Nancy Flannery, Sheila O'Brien, Lois Ostrowski, Kate Conaboy, Chris Koster and Rich Gibbons.

Marissa McHale, a recent graduate from Geisinger School of Medicine with a master's in biomedical sciences, and current St. Paul's food pantry volunteer holds an annual fundraising campaign entitled "Man and Woman of the Year" for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. This is a 10-week campaign that allows her to gather as many donations as possible to raise money for groundbreaking blood cancer research, new treatments, fee assistance, patient copays, etc. for those suffering against the horrors of blood cancer.

This cause is close to her heart for many reasons and if you have time, I invite you to read her fundraising page down below with the link to donate if you are willing to give to this cause. This year, this campaign is not only honoring two children who are blood cancer survivors from Ohio, but also allowed her the privilege to be on Maja Murphy's team this year who is a current 8-year-old fighter against Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia.

<https://pages.ils.org/mwoy/noh/cle22/mmchale>

By donating to our team, all proceeds will contribute to the growth of blood cancer research along with therapies and treatments. This has helped survival rates of patients to double, triple, and even quadruple!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS: The World Is Watching

If you're a parent, you know this to be true: the world is watching. All it takes is one slip-up — one bad word, one selfish action, one uncharitable commentary, and that's the thing your child seems to notice.

When he or she calls you on it, the only thing you can do is come clean. "Yep, I did that," you have to say. "I'm a work in progress, but luckily, God never stops working."

I think it's fair to say that we don't think enough about the wounds of Christ. It's a little understandable, of course. Our human bodies flinch at the sight of such pain and mortification. It's a lot to handle, the physical trauma of a crucifixion. It carries an R rating in a PG world.

But the wounds of Christ are the only thing that could make Thomas believe. Literally nothing else was so powerful, not even the testimony of his most trusted friends. Only by looking at and feeling the torn flesh — by beholding that messy reality — did this Apostle, this actual companion of Christ, come to believe in the Resurrection.

"Christ has no body now but yours," goes the famous quote attributed to St. Teresa of Avila. What she's saying is that we have become the means through which God chooses to accomplish His will in the world. Us, the broken.

Us, the weary. Us, the imperfect. Yes, miraculous events and apparitions still occur from time to time, but by and large, if a person is going to come to believe in Jesus Christ in this day and age, it will be because of something we Christians do or say.

Christ has no wounds now but ours. Our brokenness, our weariness, our imperfection — our reality. It all belongs to him, and the world is watching. - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

"Synod on Synodality"

(Available in both English and Spanish)

The Diocese of Scranton continues to listen to your thoughts and opinions as we answer the call of Pope Francis to participate in the local listening phase of the 2023 Synod on Synodality. It is our hope that you will prayerfully consider each question and offer feedback about your experience as a member of the Diocese of Scranton.

The Synod survey is available on the "Synod on Synodality" page of the Diocese of Scranton website (dioceseofscranton.org) through April 29, 2022. Since last October, thousands of people in all 11 counties of the Diocese of Scranton have participated in the online synod survey or individual parish listening sessions. If you have already taken the survey, please spread the word — including to family and friends that may no longer attend Mass. A key component is listening to those voices who are easily ignored or marginalized.
