

PURGATORY CALENDAR INSPIRED BY THE MARIAN FATHERS OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

"I come to tell you that they suffer in purgatory, that they weep, and that they demand with urgent cries the help of your prayers and your good works."

—St. John Vianney

Lord God, Source of life and love, Whose light guides our days and Whose mercy fills our nights, You have fashioned us for eternal life with You and have always desired that we may never be separated from You. It is by our own free will and choosing that we sin, thereby risking the loss of union with You after our death.

Hear our prayer for all those whose earthly pilgrimage has ended, most especially [intention]. Give them rest and peace. By the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph, welcome the poor souls from purgatory into heaven to forever enjoy the fulfillment of their every hope and the company of all the angels and saints in the presence of Christ our Lord. Amen.
