

PURGATORY CALENDAR INSPIRED BY THE MARIAN FATHERS OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Have mercy, O gentle Savior, on the souls held captive in purgatory. For their redemption, You took upon Yourself our human nature and suffered a cruel death. By virtue of Your sacred Passion, cancel the punishment due to their sins. May Your Most Precious Blood, which You shed for the salvation of sinners, descend into purgatory to give solace to those who currently languish there, especially [intention]. We beg You, O tender Redeemer, to relieve the intense pain and suffering of the poor souls this day. Pity their sighs and the tears they shed when they raise their longing eyes toward You. Amen.

September 2025

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1 those who deceived their neighbor	2 those who stole money from others	3 those who led children into sin	4 those who were stubborn	5 those who neglected to financially support their parish	6 deceased priests and deacons
7 those who committed sins against human life or encouraged others to do so	8 those who were not devoted to the Blessed Mother	9 those who did not partake of the Sacrament of Reconciliation	10 those who did not receive the Anointing of the Sick on their deathbed	11 deceased popes and bishops	12 those who were inattentive during prayer	13 those who failed to give witness to their faith before others
14 deceased consecrated religious	15 those in most need of prayer	16 those who battled drug or alcohol addiction	17 those who had a bad temper	18 those who did not fear God	19 those who lied frequently	20 those who were vain
21 those who did not give to the poor	22 those who used God's name in vain	23 deceased military chaplains	24 those who were materialistic	25 those who suffer for sins of omission	26 those who were resentful	27 those who were impatient
28 those who received Holy Communion knowing they were in mortal sin	29 the souls of our departed family members	30 those who voted for politicians whose positions opposed Church teaching	Lord our God, have mercy on those who have died and those who mourn them. Be their consolation. Amen. —Rev. Daniel Cambra, MIC

“... why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them.”

—St. John Chrysostom

To be added to our mailing list,
please contact:

Mrs. Anna Maria Dias, O.P.B.
(413) 530-3198
faithfirst@1791.com