SORRENTO – for information only

Sorrento is wonderfully located over steep white cliffs and offers a fantastic view over the Bay of Naples. Sorrento lies on a Tufa terrace and is enclosed by impressive rocks of the Limestone Mountains. For 2000 years already, visitors from all over the world have been attracted to Sorrento by breathtaking sunsets and fragrances of orange and lemon gardens.

Sorrento and the Amalfi coast are well known for their splendid big lemons. Typical products from Sorrento are produced with these "Limoni": Limoncello, a very tasty lemon liqueur, lemon chocolate, colorful ceramic articles with lemon motives or lemon soap. One should also try the over 70 different ice cream flavors of Gelateria Bougainvillea. One is tempted to shop by the small street Via S. Cesareo, the heart of Sorrento. In addition to this, there is the weekly market that takes place on Tuesdays, where one can find real bargains.

Sorrento is also very popular, due to its good location, as the starting point for all the important surrounding sights. The summit of the peninsula of Sorrento is only about 5 km away from Capri, which can be easily reached from Marina Piccola Harbour. Also, Ischia and Procida, of which the silhouettes can be seen on clear days, can be reached very quickly by speedboat. Sorrento is also the terminus of the Circumvesuviana, a small train with its start in Naples. One can reach Pompeii and Herculaneum by this local rail in about thirty minutes and Naples in approx. one hour's time.

Unfortunately, its good location also leads to heavy traffic in the narrow streets of the town. Relaxation and silence can presently still be found in the gardens and private beaches of the hotels, the orange grove of the museum or the monastery garden. Sorrento is recommendable as a tourist destination or a starting point for sightseeing of every kind, however it is less recommendable for a pure swimming or recuperation holiday.

SORRENTO AND ITS WONDERFUL PENINSULA ARE IDEAL FOR THOSE WISHING TO VISIT A CITY FULL OF ART IN THE MIDST OF BEAUTIFUL SCENERY OF SEA AND MOUNTAINS.

From the hotel, within a ten-minute walk, you will arrive in Piazza Tasso; the center of Sorrento, where you can see the monument Tasso and the statue of Sant'Antonino Abbate, the Church del Carmine and the facade of the House in Veniero of a Sicilian-Norman style and the Palazzo Correale. From here you can choose restaurants, shops, and many small boutiques. We then continue to the main street of Sorrento, where you can see the Duomo with its Romanesque facade. Here you can see the paintings of Horace and Nicola Malinconico – Giacomo Del Po and Silvestro Buono. Below the seat Dominova, loggia of the fifteenth century, with a dome and majolica tiles of the 1600. The old town still shows the layout of Roman origin and is surrounded by sixteenth century walls. Sorrento was Episcopalian, and in the sixteenth and seventeenth century was a victim of the assaults of the Saracens of which traces are still present and found in the towers of the coast.

The most interesting monuments to visit in Sorrento are certainly the Cathedral, built in the 15th century and the church of St. Francis of Assisi with the cloister.

At the Correale Museum are exhibited collections of Greek and Roman artefacts and Capodimonte porcelain. It is also worth visiting the museum shop of Tarsia-Ligneas where you can admire the best pieces of inlaid wood, one of the typical crafts of Sorrento.

Sorrento is not just a place full of history, but also a place to enjoy just by walking through the alleys of the historical center with local shops and typical restaurants.

Some of Sorrento's typical products are Limoncello of Sorrento peninsula, the DOP olive oil and mozzarella or provolone from Del Monaco Agerola.

For more information on Sorrento, the restaurants, the museums, pedestrian paths, eating tips, things to do and more, we suggest you print interesting information, maps, a list of museums according to your taste and budget, before you leave Canada.
