Retreat Director and Facilitator: Christine Eberle

ABOUT THE RETREAT: We have all heard the phrase "life is a journey," but for those who have dedicated their life to God, pilgrimage is a far better metaphor. On this retreat, we will draw insight from the life of Ignatius of Loyola—often called the pilgrim saint—and from the pilgrimage that now bears his name. Together we will recall the twists and turns our own paths have traveled, savor an awareness of God's presence along the way, and consider how to approach the unknown future with the heart of a pilgrim.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER: Christine Marie Eberle passionately connects Scripture, spirituality, and everyday life. She is the author of Finding God Along the Way: Wisdom from the Ignatian Camino for Life at Home (Paraclete Press, January 2025) as well as two books of daily meditations: Finding God in Ordinary Time and Finding God Abiding. After a 26-year career as a college campus minister, in 2019 Christine ended her tenure as Director of Campus Ministry at Gwynedd Mercy University to commit to a full-time ministry of writing, speaking, and retreat facilitation. She resides outside Philadelphia, where she serves on the regional advisory council of the Ignatian Volunteer Corps and cantors for her parish, St. Vincent DePaul in Germantown.
