

Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord

THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OF DOUGLAS-PIRTLEVILLE

La Comunidad Católica de Douglas – Pueblo Nuevo

For the weekend of January 3/4, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

- ♦ Welcome Bishop-elect James Misko to the Diocese of Tucson! This is not news anymore as I am certain you have seen and heard in local TV outlets, social media posts and diocesan news about Pope Leo's appointment of the new Bishop of Tucson James Misko of the diocese of Austin, TX. After almost a year of wait, the diocese is blessed with a new shepherd. Preparations are underway for the ordination/consecration and installation of the new Bishop on Friday, February 20, 2025.
- ♦ 2025 said good-bye to us and so do we. We cannot go back but we can look back. We cannot repeat. 2025 is past. It is now history marked with good and bad memories, joy and sadness, successes and lessons learned. On to the next! Welcome 2026! A new year is always a blessing from God filled with abundant joys and kindness, lots of surprises, hidden mysteries, past learning, renewed energy, fresh beginnings, etc. Happy New Year! On the first day of the year, we honored the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title the mother of God (Theotokos, God-bearer). You probably have your own ritual in saying bye to 2025 and saying hello and welcoming 2026 but I always look up to the Blessed Mother's words, "And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart" (Luke 2: 19). The best way to start the year is the exercise of a contemplative heart.
- ♦ Happy Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord or the visit of the Magi from the East, a feast that has gained so much popularity. Epiphany means "Manifestation" of the Christ child to the ends of the earth as represented by the Magi. We celebrate Epiphany as the revelation of the Christ to the world led by the Magi. The Magi are men of wisdom, royal advisers or the king's consultants. They spent their lives studying and following the movement of the stars. They are talented, highly skilled and intellectual. They are seekers of truth just like all of us. Over time, the term has developed layers of meaning which meant star gazers and worshippers, astrologers, charlatans, magicians, fortune tellers, and interpreter of dreams. They may have odd background and lifestyle but once they discovered the Messiah, they gave up their lifelong professions in adoration of Jesus. How wonderful! In a way, the characters in the nativity scene were the most unlikely people. They were not supposed to be there. We recall today our own personal religious and spiritual journey best described as God's manifestation. What is your story? How did you end up a devout Catholic?
- ♦ This year, the feast of the Epiphany marks the closing and end of the Jubilee Year of Hope: from pilgrims to missionaries of hope.

In Christ,

Fr. Jojo

THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OF DOUGLAS-PIRTLEVILLE

For the weekend of January 3/4, 2026

Estimados feligreses,

- ♦ ¡Bienvenido obispo electo James Misko a la Diócesis de Tucson! Esto ya no es noticia, como estoy seguro de que habéis visto y escuchado en los medios de televisión locales, publicaciones en redes sociales y noticias diocesanas sobre el nombramiento por parte del Papa León del nuevo obispo de Tucson, James Misko, de la diócesis de Austin, TX. Tras casi un año de espera, la diócesis es bendecida con un nuevo pastor. Se están preparando para la ordenación/consagración e instalación del nuevo obispo el viernes 20 de febrero de 2025.
- ♦ 2025 nos dijo adiós y nosotros también. No podemos volver atrás, pero sí podemos mirar atrás. No podemos repetir. 2025 ya pasó. Ahora es historia marcada por buenos y malos recuerdos, alegría y tristeza, éxitos y lecciones aprendidas. ¡Pasemos al siguiente! ¡Bienvenido 2026! Un año nuevo siempre es una bendición de Dios lleno de alegría y bondad abundantes, muchas sorpresas, misterios ocultos, aprendizajes pasados, energías renovadas, nuevos comienzos, etc. ¡Feliz Año Nuevo! El primer día del año, honramos a la Santísima Virgen María bajo el título de madre de Dios (Theotokos, portadora de Dios). Probablemente tengas tu propio ritual de despedirte de 2025, saludar y dar la bienvenida a 2026, pero siempre admiro las palabras de la Santísima Virgen: "Y María guardó todas estas cosas, reflexionando sobre ellas en su corazón" (Lucas 2:19). La mejor manera de empezar el año es ejercitar un corazón contemplativo.
- ♦ Feliz Fiesta de la Epifanía del Señor o la visita de los Magos del Este, una fiesta que ha ganado tanta popularidad. Epifanía significa "Manifestación" del Niño Jesús hasta los confines de la tierra, tal como la representan los Magos. Celebramos la Epifanía como la revelación de Cristo al mundo liderado por los Magos. Los Magos son hombres sabios, consejeros reales o consejeros del rey. Pasaron su vida estudiando y siguiendo el movimiento de las estrellas. Son personas talentosas, altamente cualificadas e intelectuales. Son buscadores de la verdad como todos nosotros. Con el tiempo, el término ha desarrollado capas de significado que pueden significar observadores y adoradores de las estrellas, astrólogos, charlatanes, magos, adivinos e intérpretes de sueños. Puede que tengan un origen y un estilo de vida peculiares, pero una vez que descubrieron al Mesías, abandonaron sus profesiones de por vida en adoración a Jesús. ¡Qué maravilla! En cierto modo, los personajes del belén eran las personas más improbables. No se suponía que estuvieran allí. Hoy recordamos nuestro propio viaje religioso y espiritual personal, mejor descrito como la manifestación de Dios. ¿Cuál es tu historia? ¿Cómo acabaste siendo un católico devoto?
- ♦ Este año, la fiesta de la Epifanía marca el cierre y el fin del Año Jubilar de la Esperanza. De peregrinos a misioneros de esperanza.

En Cristo,

Fr. Jojo

Pope Leo XIV has appointed Father James A. Misko, vicar general and moderator of the curia for the Diocese of Austin, Texas, as the bishop of Tucson, Arizona. The appointment was publicized in Washington Dec. 22 by Cardinal Christophe Pierre, apostolic nuncio to the United States.

Bishop-designate Misko, 55, will be the eighth bishop of Tucson. The diocese has been led by Bishop Gerald F.

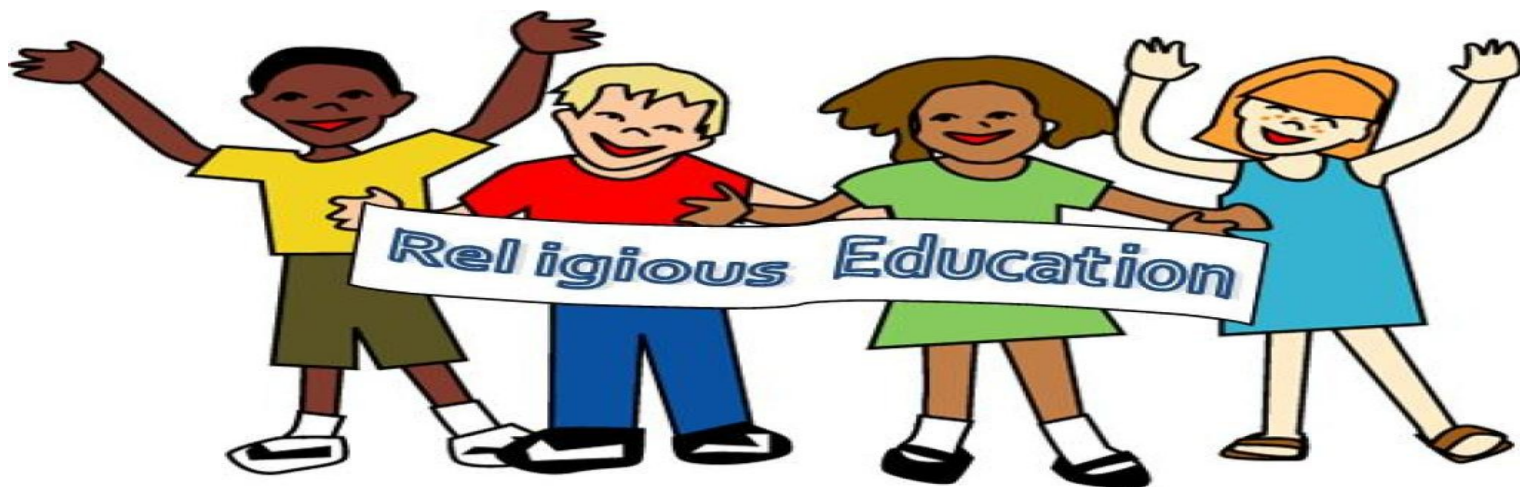

Kicanas as apostolic administrator since March after the previous bishop, now-Archbishop Edward J. Weisenburger was named to head the Archdiocese of Detroit. Bishop Kicanas is the retired bishop of Tucson, having headed the diocese from 2003 to 2017.

The episcopal ordination Mass for the bishop-designate will be celebrated at St. Augustine Cathedral Feb. 20. Born in Los Angeles June 18, 1970, Bishop-designate Misko was raised in Austin, where he has lived most of his life. He attended St. Louis King of France Catholic School in Austin, the school at the parish where he would one day become the pastor.

He received a bachelor's degree in communications from St. Edward's University in Austin. After graduation, he worked in the restaurant industry for several years as a general manager and eventually as managing partner. He entered the seminary at age 30, and after earning a master of arts in theological studies, a master's of divinity and a bachelor's in sacred theology at the University of St. Thomas and St. Mary's Seminary in Houston, he was ordained a priest on June 9, 2007. He was appointed parochial vicar of St. Elizabeth in Pflugerville, Texas, and then served as pastor of Christ the King in Belton, Texas, and of St. Louis King of France in Austin. Then-Bishop Joe S. Vásquez appointed then-Father Misko as vicar general and moderator of the curia of the Austin Diocese Jan. 21, 2019. Father Misko was elected diocesan administrator by the College of Consultors. When Bishop Daniel E. Garcia was named as the sixth bishop of Austin, Father Misko was reappointed as vicar general and moderator of the Curia.

"With great joy for the Church and Fr. James, I invite you to join me in congratulating and praying for him as he undertakes this new pastoral responsibility," Bishop Garcia said. "The Diocese of Austin has benefited greatly from the many years of priestly ministry Fr. James has given to this local church." "I am personally very grateful to Fr. James for his service as diocesan administrator and to me these last few months," Bishop Garcia said in a statement posted on the Austin Diocese's Facebook page. "While he will be missed, we know that he will shepherd the people of the Diocese of Tucson with his many gifts and joyful love for our Lord! ... May Our Lady of Guadalupe watch over and protect him always."

Bishop-designate Misko is the son of Tom and Gerri Misko. His father is deceased. His sister, Mary Kay Martinez and her husband, Jesus Toro Martinez, live in San Antonio, and his brother, John Misko, lives in California. The bishop-designate is an avid golfer and enjoys cycling, traveling, gardening, cooking and visiting local restaurants and coffee houses. A native speaker of English, he is also proficient in Spanish.
