

The Baptism of the Lord

Pope Leo XIV has appointed Father James A. Misko, vicar general and moderator of the curia for the Diocese of Austin, Texas, as the bishop of Tucson, Arizona. The appointment was publicized in Washington Dec. 22 by Cardinal Christophe Pierre, apostolic nuncio to the United States.

Bishop-designate Misko, 55, will be the eighth bishop of Tucson. The diocese has been led by Bishop Gerald F. Kicanas as apostolic administrator since March after the previous bishop, now-Archbishop Edward J. Weisenburger was named to head the Archdiocese of Detroit. Bishop Kicanas is the retired bishop of Tucson, having headed the diocese from 2003 to 2017.

The episcopal ordination Mass for the bishop-designate will be celebrated at St. Augustine Cathedral Feb. 20.

Born in Los Angeles June 18, 1970, Bishop-designate Misko was raised in Austin, where he has lived most of his life. He attended St. Louis King of France Catholic School in Austin, the school at the parish where he would one day become the pastor.

He received a bachelor's degree in communications from St. Edward's University in Austin. After graduation, he worked in the restaurant industry for several years as a general manager and eventually as managing partner.

He entered the seminary at age 30, and after earning a master of arts in theological studies, a master's of divinity and a bachelor's in sacred theology at the University of St. Thomas and St. Mary's Seminary in Houston, he was ordained a priest on June 9, 2007. He was appointed parochial vicar of St. Elizabeth in Pflugerville, Texas, and then served as pastor of Christ the King in Belton, Texas, and of St. Louis King of France in Austin. Then-Bishop Joe S. Vásquez appointed then-Father Misko as vicar general and moderator of the curia of the Austin Diocese Jan. 21, 2019.

Bishop-designate Misko is the son of Tom and Gerri Misko. His father is deceased. His sister, Mary Kay Martinez and her husband, Jesus Toro Martinez, live in San Antonio, and his brother, John Misko, lives in California. The bishop-designate is an avid golfer and enjoys cycling, traveling, gardening, cooking and visiting local restaurants and coffee houses. A native speaker of English, he is also proficient in Spanish.

WELCOME BISHOP MISKO TO OUR DIOCESE!

St. Vincent de Paul News. . .

Many thanks to everyone who contributed to our food drive for Christmas boxes and bags. With the help of St. Vincent de Paul members, employees and families from Southwest Gas and students from DHS National Honor Society, St. Vincent de Paul prepared and distributed 39 family boxes (3-8 family members) and 71 food bags (1-2 people) which fed over 250 people this Christmas. We are so grateful for the food and financial contributions we received which assisted us in feeding our Friends in need.

May God continue to bless you for all you do to care for the needs in our community.
