Feliz Navidad

THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OF DOUGLAS-PIRTLEVILLE

La Comunidad Católica de Douglas – Pueblo Nuevo

December 23/24, 2023

Dear Parishioners

- ◆ Merry Christmas! May the “Word made Flesh,” born in the manger, continue to shower you with the blessings of joy, peace, and love. The coming of God, through Christ in human flesh, is an event in history that even us believers will not fully understand. For God to come in our flesh is beyond any culture, philosophy, politics, human comprehension, and imagination. Although it was prophesied, no one expected a “God” to come in human flesh. Christmas then, is a celebration of indescribable joy.
- ◆ Although this is for the 4th Sunday of Advent, it's almost, not yet, and already Christmas. Since this weekend is a double header (Sunday and Christmas) Holy Day of Obligation which seldom happens, it's alright if we start singing Christmas carols. For four weeks, we recited intense prayers of longing and waiting. Even if Christ came already and made his presence felt among us, we still wanted him to show up and share the feast with us. No wonder the over used song is, O Come, O Come, Emmanuel.
- ◆ Although we know the end of the story, Advent was suspenseful. We reenacted the story of the birth of Christ through Christmas plays and Posadas (Inn). We lit Christmas lights outside the Church early in Advent to symbolize the importance the light of Christ has brought amidst darkness. We enjoyed watching the kids sing Christmas carols, especially if they made mistakes. We just wanted to see them on stage and enjoy the moment. God came to us as a child to be near and close to us, free to talk without inhibition about anything, just like we do to a child.
- ◆ Christmas is the most wonderful time of the year. People come to Church more often on Advent/Christmas than at any time of the year. The positive energy Christmas brings draws people to Church even at dawn. We spend more time in the kitchen than at any place in the house. Our house is well decorated to warmly welcome the helpless little child in our midst. If Christmas means “God and man” reconciled, then there is no better way to prepare for Christmas than to go to confession. However, God will come to you regardless of your circumstances in life.
- ◆ Christmas is a celebration of God’s unimaginable love to humanity in the fullest sense of the word. And yet, it is not only us celebrating. It is the entire universe, the whole world, that is, all creation (mountains and hills, busy streets and dark alleys, porches, and patios every corner of the house) will join us in praise to the newborn lying in the manger.
- ◆ Thank you for your participation in the Advent parish events (liturgical and non-liturgical). For as long as there are crowds of people flocking to the Church, God is glorified. Mission accomplished.

Blessings,

Fpx. Jojo

Queridos Feligreses,

- ◆ ¡Feliz Navidad! Que el "Verbo hecho carne", nacido en el pesebre, continúe colmándolos de las bendiciones de alegría, paz y amor. La venida de Dios, a través de Cristo, en carne humana, es un acontecimiento en la historia que ni siquiera nosotros, los creyentes, entenderemos plenamente. Que Dios venga en nuestra carne está más allá de cualquier cultura, filosofía, política, comprensión humana e imaginación. Aunque fue profetizado, nadie esperaba que un "Dios" viniera en carne humana. La Navidad, entonces, es una celebración de alegría indescriptible.
- ◆ Aunque esta liturgia es del 4º domingo de Adviento, ya casi, pero todavía no es Navidad. Dado que este fin de semana es un Día de Obligación Sagrado doble (domingo y Navidad) que rara vez sucede, está bien si comenzamos a cantar villancicos. Durante cuatro semanas, recitamos intensas oraciones de anhelo y espera. Incluso si Cristo ya vino y se hizo sentir entre nosotros, todavía queríamos que se presentara y compartiera la fiesta con nosotros. No es de extrañar que la canción más usada sea: "ven, ven, Señor no tardes".
- ◆ Aunque conocemos el final de la historia, el Adviento estuvo lleno de suspenso. Recreamos la historia del nacimiento de Cristo a través de obras de teatro navideñas y posadas. Encendimos luces navideñas fuera de la Iglesia a principios de Adviento para simbolizar la importancia que la luz de Cristo ha traído en medio de la oscuridad. Disfrutamos viendo a los niños cantar villancicos, especialmente si cometían errores. Solo queríamos verlos en el escenario y disfrutar del momento. Dios vino a nosotros como un niño para estar cerca y cerca de nosotros, libre para hablar sin inhibiciones sobre cualquier cosa, tal como lo hacemos con un niño.
- ◆ La Navidad es la época más maravillosa del año. La gente viene a la Iglesia con más frecuencia en Adviento/Navidad que en cualquier otra época del año. La energía positiva que trae la Navidad atrae a la gente a la Iglesia incluso al amanecer. Pasamos más tiempo en la cocina que en cualquier otro lugar de la casa. Nuestra casa está bien decorada para dar una cálida bienvenida al niño indefenso en medio de nosotros. Si Navidad significa "Dios y el hombre" reconciliados, entonces no hay mejor manera de prepararse para la Navidad que confesarse. Sin embargo, Dios vendrá a ti independientemente de tus circunstancias en la vida.
- ◆ La Navidad es una celebración del amor inimaginable de Dios a la humanidad, en el sentido más amplio de la palabra. Y, sin embargo, no solo nosotros lo celebramos. Es el universo entero, el mundo entero, es decir, toda la creación (montañas y colinas, calles concursadas y callejones oscuros, porches y patios en cada rincón de la casa) se unirá a nosotros en alabanza al recién nacido que yace en el pesebre.
- ◆ Gracias por su participación en los eventos parroquiales de Adviento (litúrgicos y no litúrgicos). Mientras haya multitudes de personas acudiendo a la Iglesia, Dios es glorificado. Misión cumplida.

Bendiciones,

Fx. Jojo
