Membership Terms, Rules & Liability

Honeybrook Golf Club is a semi-private, non-equity facility. Membership does not include any ownership interest, governance rights, voting privileges, or equity of any kind.

Tee Time Reservations & Pairings

- Honeybrook Golf Club remains open for public play and may host tournaments or special events that limit or adjust regular tee time availability.
- Members should anticipate occasional schedule changes based on course operations.
- Members must book tee times in advance to ensure a tee time.
- Members may be paired with other players, including the public, when they do not book a complete foursome.
- Members may reserve multiple tee times only when they reasonably expect to fill them.
- The Golf Shop may modify or cancel tee times that do not reflect actual intended group size.
- Booking incomplete foursomes or holding tee times to block access is prohibited.

Club Policies & Conduct

- Members must conduct themselves respectfully toward staff, guests, and fellow golfers.
- Guest play is subject to public rates unless otherwise noted.
- Honeybrook is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged personal property.

Liability & Assumption of Risk

- By entering the property, Members assume all inherent risks associated with golf, including but not limited to: errant golf balls, golf carts, wet or uneven terrain, the use of equipment, and the actions of other players or guests.
- Members release and hold harmless Honeybrook Golf Club, its ownership, and staff from liability for injury or property damage caused by ordinary negligence or otherwise, to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- Memberships are non-refundable and are not subject to extension or proration due to weather, routine maintenance, or temporary course adjustments. Honeybrook Golf Club's standard rain-check policies remain in effect.
