Heralding the Holidays Vendor Information 2026
December 4, 5, & 6, 2026
Hours: Fri. 4–9 | Sat. 10 –5 | Sun. 11–4

Toledo Artists' Club Presents: Heralding the Holidays Market
Held in the Artist's Village, this annual event offers a wealth of gift ideas for every taste. TAC invites fine artists and artisans to exhibit and sell their work on the first weekend of December.
A catalog of participating vendors will be published once the application period concludes. The online artists' vendor applications close at 11:59 PM on November 10, 2026. To ensure variety, the club will restrict the number of vendors in each category. Applications received after November 7 must contact the office for consideration.

Fees: $75 for members and $100 for non-members

Booth Layout & Availability

- Six tables down the center of the room (back-to-back)
- Five tables around the perimeter
- All booths are excellent spots — reserved on a first-come basis; paying secures your space
- Vendors must remain open for the full event — no early breakdowns or late setups

Sales & Payment Guidelines

- Items for sale must be handmade. No resale or mass-produced items. Prints of your own original work are acceptable. Booths may be shared.
- If you're a TAC member and unable to accept credit cards, the office can process credit card sales for you.

  2 after the event, TAC will issue you a check for the processed sales (less credit card fees).
- You must have a cash box at your booth for making change. TAC will not collect cash sales for you, nor will extra cash be available to purchase.
- No refunds for vendor space after November 20.
