2nd Sunday of Advent

Solemnity of Immaculate Conception of Our Blessed Mother

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception stands as one of the Church's most beautiful celebrations of God's saving love, a feast that reveals how deeply grace precedes and prepares every moment of salvation history. Defined dogmatically by Blessed Pius IX in Ineffabilis Deus (1854), the doctrine proclaims that Mary, from the first instant of her conception, was preserved from original sin by the merits of Christ's future sacrifice. Historically, this teaching matured over centuries of prayer, theological reflection, and liturgical devotion, ultimately affirming what the faithful had intuited – that the mother of the Redeemer was fashioned by grace to be a worthy vessel for the Incarnation of our Blessed Lord.

Spiritually, the Immaculate Conception is not simply about Mary's privilege but about the Church's destiny. Mary reveals what humanity looks like when fully responsive to God's initiative. In her, we see the first fruits of Christ's victory, the promise of what God desires for all His children. Her "yes" becomes the model of human freedom redeemed and transformed by grace. In a world marked by brokenness, Mary's immaculate beginning shines as a sign of hope, reminding us that sin does not have the final word.

This solemnity also calls us to trust in God's providence. Before Mary could speak her fiat, God had already acted. Before the world recognized its need for a Savior, God was preparing the way. In Mary's conception, we glimpse the mystery of a God who anticipates our wounds with mercy and our fears with grace.

May the celebration of the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of our Blessed Mother tomorrow renew in us the desire for holiness, the courage to say "yes," and the confidence that God's grace precedes, accompanies, and perfects every step of our journey.

A Blessed Solemnity to You and Yours.

Fr. Peter

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

December, 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

I write to tell you about the upcoming 2025 collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. This annual appeal assists nearly 25,000 elderly sisters, brothers and religious order priests nationwide.

I am grateful for the significant influence that women and men religious, both past and present, have had on my own spiritual journey. I deeply appreciate their invaluable contributions to our diocese and the wider community. Perhaps you too have been touched by the kindness and guidance of an older woman or man religious who made a positive difference in your life.

We are called to recognize that many of our senior vowed religious have dedicated their lives to service, usually receiving little pay in return. Consequently, their religious communities face a shortage of retirement savings. Compounding this challenge are rising health-care costs and decreased income. Religious communities find it increasingly difficult to meet the day-to-day needs of aging members, including their medical expenses, nursing assistance and other necessities.

Your generous donations to the Retirement Fund for Religious provide vital financial support, enabling religious communities to care for their aging members.

I know you are frequently asked to support many worthy causes. I invite you to contribute whatever you can toward this year's collection. In addition to your financial contribution, please keep all our women and men religious in your prayers.

May God's abundant blessings be upon you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Thomas John Paprocki

Lectors – Isabelle Long, Helen Crusan

Nine months before the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (8 September), the Church celebrates the Solemnity of her Immaculate Conception. The Immaculate Conception refers to the belief that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was preserved from original sin from the moment of her conception. This doctrine emphasizes that she be a pure vessel for the Incarnation of Christ. The dogma was officially defined by Pope Pius IX on December 8, 1854

Prayer for the Sick

O glorious Saint Camillus, special patron of the sick poor, who for forty years, with truly heroic charity, did devote yourself to the relief of their temporal and spiritual necessities, be pleased to assist them now even more generously, since you are blessed in heaven and they have been committed by Holy Church to your powerful protection.

Obtain for them from Almighty God the healing of all their maladies, or at least, the spirit of Christian patience and resignation that may sanctify them and comfort them in the hour of their passing to eternity; at the same time obtain for us the precious grace of living and dying after your example in the practice of divine love. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary,
Glory be to the Father.
