Meet Coach Doherty

As a starter of the 1982 National Championship team with Michael Jordan at UNC, he began his leadership journey under the legendary Dean Smith. He went on to be the Head Coach at Notre Dame and North Carolina, and in 2001 led the team to the ACC Regular Season Championship and was named the AP National Coach of the Year.

Coach Doherty also was the Head Coach at FAU and SMU, in addition to working with ESPN, the Indiana Pacers, and the Atlantic 10 Conference. His mission is to "Learn & Grow" every day and his leadership journey took him to the UVA Darden School of Business and The Wharton School. He is committed to sharing universal teachings and lessons from the basketball court to the boardroom, all with actionable ideas that will work for you.

We would love to have you join us to hear about all this and Coach's faith and how it has impacted his life.
