A close-up photograph of a person's hands holding a small pile of yellow and red flower petals. The hands are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the frame, with the left hand slightly above the right. The left hand wears a red string bracelet with a white bead, and the right hand wears a blue metal link bracelet and a light blue smartwatch. The petals are falling from the hands, creating a trail of yellow and red specks against a blurred background of a blue ocean with white-capped waves. The overall mood is serene and celebratory.
