Eucharistic Gem:
This most high and adorable Sacrament is the health of body and soul, the remedy for every spiritual disease. By it my vices are cured, my passions bridled, my temptations overcome or diminished; grace is poured out more lavishly in my soul, budding virtue made to bloom, faith made firm, hope strengthened and love set afire and spread abroad.
--Thomas A Kempis

Catholic Living
Archbishop Oscar A. Romero gave his life, in the words of Pope John Paul II, 'for the church and the people of his beloved country' of El Salvador. His death from an assassin's bullet on March 24, 1980, crowned a life of service as priest and bishop". Following is a brief excerpt from one of his sermons. "The guarantee on one's prayer is not in saying a lot of words. The guarantee of one's petition is very easy to know: how do I treat the poor? The degree to which you approach them, and the love with which you approach them, or the scorn with which you approach them—that is how you approach God. What you do to them, you do to God. The way you look at them is the way you look at God." Feb. 5, 1978
