From FR C.P.

We are into a new year. It is my wish and prayer for all of us that we continue to experience God's love and mercy throughout the new year 2026. May all your dreams and desires be materialized and fulfilled. We need to thank God for all the blessings that God has showered upon us during the past year of 2025. They include all the experiences of our daily lives both positive and negative. Even the negative events of our daily life here on earth have some purpose, maybe a message from our God or a lesson to learn from. On another note, I will be away on vacation from January 5th to February 5th, as informed through bulletins of past weeks. Kindly say a short prayer for me so that my travels and time spent during this vacation may go well as planned. I will be connected with the church through the staff members. Fr. Brian Earnest has generously accepted to cover for me with the celebration of the sacraments during my absence. God bless him for his good heart.

Eucharistic Gem:

It (the Eucharist) is a sacrament of love, because it was pure love that induced Jesus Christ to give us this gift and pledge of love: for he wished that, should a doubt of his having loved us ever enter into our minds, we should have in this sacrament a pledge of his love.

---St. Alphonsus Liguori

Catholic Living

...light is less something we see directly, and more something by which we see all other things. In other words, we have faith in Christ so we can have the faith of Christ. That is the goal....We need to look at Jesus until we can look out at the world with his kind of eyes. The world no longer trusts Christians who "love Jesus" but do not seem to love anything else. In Jesus Christ, God's own broad, deep, and all-inclusive worldview is made available to us....

Christ is the light which allows people to see things in their fullness. The precise and intended effect of such a light is to see Christ everywhere else....A mature Christian sees Christ in everything and everyone else. That is a definition that will never fail us, always demand more of us, and give us no reasons to fight, exclude or reject anyone.

Fr Richard Rohr Daily Meditation

We will be offering a "Biblical Walk through the Mass" during Lent again this year starting February 22nd, 2026. Look for sign-up sheet in the main gathering area of the Church.
