This past November Bishop Hanefeldt elevated the CSC Newman House to the St. Pier Giorgio Frassati Newman House. This is something generations of Newman students have built up to. It is an exciting time for Nebraska's only western Newman Center. St. Frassati took the motto, "Verso l'Alto," meaning "To the Heights." How fitting a patronal motto for a school whose mascot is the Eagles. As we soar to new heights in educational and athletic excellence, may the prayers of St. Frassati elevate the souls of our youth to the liberating heights of a life in Christ. Thank you to all who have so generously supported the St. Pier Giorgio Frassati Newman House. We are blessed by your prayers and sacrifices.

Pax, Fr. Matthew Nash, Chaplain

While the Magi acknowledged and worshipped the baby that Mary cradled in her arms as the one awaited by the nations and foretold by prophets, today we can also worship him in the Eucharist and acknowledge him as our Creator, our only Lord and Savior.

Catholic Living

Sixty years have passed since Pope John Paul XXIII's encyclical letter, (Peace on Earth). In it he emphasizes human rights, dignity, and necessity of peace built on truth, justice, charity, and freedom... Key themes include the inherent dignity of all people, the interconnectedness of rights and duties, and the rejection of war as a solution in the atomic age...

We are caught in an upward spiral of escalation and destruction, with many more wars being waged all around the world...Over two and half millennia ago Isaiah expressed the yearning for a world where war is ended, declaring, "He will judge between nations, and will render decisions for many peoples; and they will hammer their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, and never again will they learn war" (Is. 2-4) The Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences Jesus's commands to "love one another" and to "love your enemies" are gut-wrenchingly hard at times, but this is what we are called to. In our personal, work, school and political lives let us do the hard work of following Jesus and living his commands.
