From FR. C.P.

In a couple of days, we will be entering into a new fiscal year (July 1st). Also, I will be completing 4 years of my priestly ministry in this parish, as your pastor. At this time, I would like to thank you all for your support, cooperation and collaboration shown to me in all the parish activities/ ministries during the past four years. As far as I am concerned, I am very positive about the way things are going on in our parish at this time. It is my best assessment that in all the ministries and activities that we are engaged in, there is a lot of life and enthusiasm from everyone. In all the programs that we do, the leaders are doing their best and the participants are making all the efforts by spending their talents, treasures, and time so that everyone can have real and meaningful spiritual experiences here at St. Patrick's. But as we know, there is always room for improvement. Therefore, I request you all to continue to put in your best so that we can continue to grow in Christian spirituality and discipleship. I haven't heard many desperate cries or disgruntled feelings of any sort, so far. Positive suggestions for growth and development are always preferred by all of us rather than negative criticisms that only contribute towards destruction and disunity. May God continue to bless all of us.

Catholic Living

Listening to be Formed - Wisdom from Henri Nouwen

Through the regular practice of scriptural meditation, we develop an inner ear that allows us to recognize God's word that speaks directly to our most intimate needs and aspirations. When we listen to a sentence, a story, or a parable not simply to be instructed, informed, or inspired but to be formed into a truly obedient person, then the Book offers trustworthy spiritual insight. The daily practice of lectio divina (sacred reading), over time, transforms our personal identity, our actions, and our common life of faith...Scripture does have a personal word for us, yet knowledge of historic Christian teaching helps us avoid the easy trap of wanting scripture to support our own designs. "All Scripture is God-breathed, rebuking, correcting and training righteousness..." -2 Tim. 3:16

Children's Liturgy of the Word:

We are working to bring this wonderful Liturgy back to our Parish in August 2025. This program is a great way for the young children in the Parish to learn more about the readings and Homily that are being proclaimed so they will have a better understanding. If your family is interested in participating in this program please reach out to Joan Falcon at (308) 254-2828 for more information. A meeting will be scheduled before the program begins to run through everything with the children so they know what to expect. We hope to see you there!
