From FR. C.P.:

We are entering into the holiest season of the liturgical calendar, namely the Holy Week. We recall the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus, which are the most important factors of our salvation history. One author has opined, "Christ will be crucified in every century not by his enemies, but by his own followers." I tend to believe that this statement is validated in our own times when we see around us in the world the poor suffer, the just meet with unjust and corrupt dealings, the weaker nations suffer because of the imperialist attacks of stronger nations. Yes, Christ is crucified repeatedly. Each one of us should ask ourselves: 'How am I responsible for the repeated martyrdom of Jesus'? Let us intensify our meditation during this Holy Week and make amendments for our failures, commit ourselves to strong and brave resolutions that we will do something to create a better world in our own capacity. May the Lord bless our efforts.

Adoration on Holy Thursday:

Please sign up to spend an hour with Jesus in Adoration after Holy Thursday Mass from 7:00 PM-12:00 AM. There is room on the sign-up sheet for many adorers for each hour. Sign-up sheets are on the tables in the front and back of the Church.

Catholic Living:

Choosing Grace Not Violence

Violence is contagious. Violence begets violence. A rude look is exchanged for a cold shoulder. A middle finger to a honked horn. Hatred begets hatred. Pick up the sword and die by the sword. There is a contagion of violence in the world; it's spreading like a disease. But grace is also contagious. An act of kindness inspires another act of kindness. A random smile is exchanged for an open door. Helping someone carry their laundry or groceries makes them nicer. Randomly paying someone's toll in the car behind you invites them to pay it forward. A single act of forgiveness can feel like it heals the world. Grace begets grace. Love rubs off on those who are loved...CAC Daily Meditations

Eucharistic Gem:

By his incarnation, the Lord has given himself to all men in general; but, in this sacrament, he has given himself to each of us in particular, to make us understand the special love of us in particular, to make us understand the special love which he entertains for each of us.
