From FR C.P

Every community has a certain number of programs and activities that are geared towards building up, forming, and strengthening the 'we feeling' that should exist within it. Recently, we have had the Sidney Oktober Fest celebrated for which people of even neighboring towns and communities also had gathered. These days, in almost all of our parishes, Annual Fall Fests are taking place. Though they might be known by different names, the idea is the same: 'We all belong to one family. Everyone is welcome here. You really matter to us'. At St. Patrick's, we are about three weeks away from our Annual Fall Festival which is to take place this year on All Souls Day (November 2). So, this year it gives us an opportunity to think of all of the deceased members of our parish that day, particularly those who passed away during the past one year, who once were actively involved in the life of our parish community. These days, I see meetings happening at the parish center and at the office conducted by various groups and organizing committees of this annual event. May I request everyone not just participate in this event, but to actively take up leadership roles as well? Thus let's extend our wholehearted support and cooperation to each other so that this event may turn out to be a meaningful one for all of us. In that connection, let me also say this: Any effort towards community building is worth the trouble. I would appreciate and sincerely thank all the good deeds done by those who take up special initiatives in this regard. The monthly 'Coffee and Cookies Sunday', the funeral dinners, and hospitality events are a few of such events meeting their objectives one way or the other. Let us march ahead as a vibrant community of believers.

Eucharistic Gem

The Church draws her life from the Eucharist. This truth does not simply express a daily experience of faith but recapitulates the heart of the mystery of the Church.—Pope St. John Paul II

U.S. bishops' president begs Americans to see Christ 'in every person', reject political violence

Five years after the release of Pope Francis' encyclical on fraternal love, and amid a rise in political violence, the leader of the U.S. Catholic bishops, (Archbishop Broglio), is pleading for a rediscovery of -and respect for-a common humanity." Following are 4 quotes from his reflection in an Oct.1 pastoral invitation for reflection, any of which can be rich food for our own reflection. "We have seen the manifestation of this notion in the perverse ideas that one can serve the common good by becoming an instrument of violence. This happens when we refuse to see the face of Christ in the other person and only see an enemy that must be dominated or destroyed" "Each of us should examine our hearts, our thoughts, and our actions and ask ourselves how we contribute to the polarization and animosity plaguing our nation." "Pray for your enemies." He concluded his reflection with a call to pray "that we may discover anew that all are important and all are necessary, different faces of the one humanity that God so loves. Amen"

Box of Joy

St. Patrick's will again participate in the Cross Catholic Outreach Box of Joy program. Please consider taking a box or two to spread Christmas joy to a child in an underdeveloped country. Boxes of Joy are now available for pick up in both gathering areas. Please return your filled boxes after Masses on October 18th or 19th, or earlier at the Parish Office.
