

All families invited to send your high school teens to this amazing Steubenville Conference.

FAQ'S

Who can participate in this trip? High school freshmen through graduating seniors from any parish within the diocese. (currently in grades 9-12)

How do I register my teenager for the GI Diocese trip? To attend the trip with our diocese, you must register using this link-<https://gidiocese.org/steubenville> (registration opens 2/1/2026). This link will take you to the diocesan registration form. Complete the form and submit payment.

Which Steubenville Conference are we going to? There are 25 Steubenville youth conferences held each summer across the country. The Grand Island Diocese is sponsoring a trip to Steubenville of the Rockies on June 19-21, 2026. Location: Gaylord Rockies Resort & Convention Center, Aurora, CO

Where will we stay? Gaylord Rockies Resort & Convention Center, Aurora, CO

How will we get there? We will be traveling by motorcoach and plan to pick up and drop off at several locations along Interstate 80.

I have never been to a Steubenville Conference, what does the weekend involve? What does the schedule look like? Steubenville Conferences follow a consistent schedule and theme each year, regardless of location. The weekend is designed to give youth a powerful opportunity to connect with peers who share their faith, in an environment that encourages openness to hear God speak to them. This is achieved through keynote talks, breakout sessions, the celebration of the sacraments, and by emphasizing encountering Christ in the Eucharist—often described as fostering a sense of “Eucharistic amazement.”

How much do I have to pay? The cost of Steubenville of the Rockies for 2026 is $450 for students, with an early bird rate of $399 through February 8, 2026. A late fee of $499 will apply after April 15, 2026. All registrations require a $100 non-refundable deposit. All payments are made to the Diocese of Grand Island and are due by April 15, 2026. When a family plans to have kids attend 3 or more diocesan youth
