

Dear {{ contact.SALUTATION | default : "Friend" }},

Praise the Lord for the opportunity to proclaim Christ today at Camping World Stadium in Orlando, FL for the Pop Tarts Bowl.

Ga. Tech played Brigham Young University. Lots of fans attended.

Veteran evangelists Mark Yoho and Andy Schmelzer joined me along with new evangelist Lance Bury from Melbourne, FL.

We've been at Camping World Stadium for many events over the years. There are three good locations so Mark, Andy and I split up to cover them.

The video below shows my ministry area. You can see how the fans can walk up and down the street, the gate is basically across the street and the tailgating areas behind me all creating lots of foot traffic.

My sermon was on God's goodness and I explained what that meant. Jesus Christ is a demonstration of God's goodness.

Of course God's goodness is His desire for us to dwell together. Jesus brought that message to us and His work did all that was necessary for reconciliation to happen. Even to the point of the Holy Spirit being given to us to dwell in us.

Lots of Christians in the crowd affirmed the message. One young man named Graham, probably 15, passed by with his family, smiled but then returned to ask to pray for me.

Another young man, probably in his 20s, Dillon expressed his lack of faith. So we talked about God shows Himself to us so we can believe and I encouraged Dillon to read the Bible daily and to pray for an hour daily.

John the Baptist is one of my 'heroes' and in essence to follow in his footsteps of pointing souls to Christ, to behold the Lamb of God that takes away their sins, is a highlight of preaching Christ in the open air to thousands.

There were evangelists at three other Bowl games today.

Plus faithful evangelists Heath Pucel and Dan Davis at the Green Bay Packers game tonight.

Tomorrow there are evangelists at 4 pro football games and at Monday night's game too.

Christ is being preached! Let's rejoice!

We're so close to having 550 individuals work with SFOI for 2025! Hallelujah!
The Lord has answered and is answering our prayers! Let's press on!

If you haven't yet would you please donate at year end so that more souls can hear the Gospel in more places in the US, Canada, Mexico, UK, Uganda, Bangladesh and Lord willing Nigeria in 2026?

“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!” (Rev. 5:12b)
