

Weekly Report 5-2-26

Dear {{ contact.SALUTATION }}, long time evangelist David Day from Montgomery, AL, pictured above with his wife, Amanda in a recent trip to London, has presented us a unique opportunity. He wants to move to London, England as a missionary.

The opportunity is to hire David to work for SFOI UK and seek to replicate in the UK what we're doing here.

David has worked with us at events, led Super Bowl Outreach Teams and traveled to London with us many times. He is familiar with how we operate.

To take advantage of this opportunity we need to sponsor David as he goes through the process to apply to UK Visa Immigration.

Below: Andrew, left, is the Christian who motivated David's move to London. David says about Andrew, "Andrews was 92 years old, a believer. Said the entire Bible is found in Romans. Meeting him was what lit the spark to move there. He just seemed so faithful, loved the Lord. Walking through Strafford by himself. I was like, Why not?"

David comments on his call to go and his goal once in London:

Our Call: As Christians, my wife and believe the Lord is calling us to the UK to first and foremost to preach the Gospel for His glory. Secondary, that through its proclamation men and women will hear, repent, and believe in Christ to the praise of His glorious grace. Our desire is that a candle once lit would burn brightly again, as Christ is lifted up and His truth goes forth without compromise.

Our goal is not merely to preach in the open air, but to strengthen the local church, encourage believers, and equip them to reach others with the Word of God. We desire a home saturated in prayer, a base from which to send Christians and mission teams into Central London and other parts of the United Kingdom. Our prayer is to see Christ exalted, His Word faithfully proclaimed, and lasting fruit borne through a simple, gospel-centered ministry.

These are the first two steps to getting David to the UK:

- Step 1 – Obtain a Sponsor License for Sports Fan Outreach International in the UK.

The UK requires UK companies who want to hire international workers to first obtain a Sponsor Licence. A Sponsor Licence means in essence you have the right to sponsor someone to apply for a VISA to work in the UK.

Currently the waiting time to apply and receive a Sponsor License is approximately 8 weeks. A priority service is available which aims for a decision to be made in 10 working days.

Once received a Sponsor License is valid indefinitely.

Sponsor License Costs:

Legal Cost: £7500 ($10,216)

UK Visa & Immigration (UKVI) Cost: £574 ($782)

UKVI expedited response: £750 ($1,022)

- Step 2 – Assign a Certificate of Sponsorship \(CoS\) to David to allow him to submit his UK Visa application.

After a UK Company receives a Sponsor License they are then able to apply it to a particular person. This CoS is required for them to apply to UK Immigration to receive their VISA.

The CoS would be applied to David as he applies for a Minister of Religion visa.

CoS Costs:

Legal cost: £7,000 ($9,535)

UKVI: £525 ($715)

Minister of Religion application fee: £769 ($1,048)

{{ contact.SALUTATION }}, Tim Rutherford with Stone King based in the UK is our legal contact. They have an immigration solicitor with extensive experience for all types of businesses and charities.

Imagine the Gospel being heard consistently in the large cities of the UK: London, Cardiff, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Manchester, Birmingham, Liverpool Belfast; at major events in the UK and eventually Europe.

Plus David would recruit and host individual evangelists and teams from the US who want to evangelize in London and other UK cities.

It could resemble the days of the 18th Century when George Whitefield and John Wesley and their friends saturated the UK with the Gospel.

Please send any questions. Thank you for your time.

Grace & peace,

Bill
