The Lord Is My Light and My Salvation

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

“The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?” — Psalm 27

This Sunday’s Responsorial Psalm gives voice to a deep and enduring act of faith. Psalm 27 is not a prayer spoken from comfort or certainty, but from the midst of fear, opposition, and uncertainty. The psalmist does not deny the presence of darkness; instead, he proclaims trust in the One who overcomes it. To call the Lord “my light” is to acknowledge God as the source of guidance and truth when the way forward is unclear. To name the Lord as “my salvation” is to place one’s safety, future, and hope entirely in God’s hands.

This prayer resonates powerfully with the First Reading from the Prophet Isaiah, who announces that “the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.” Isaiah speaks to a people burdened by suffering, instability, and loss of direction. The promised light is not merely relief from hardship, but the restoration of hope and meaning. Psalm 27 becomes the faithful response to that promise: a decision to trust God’s presence even before the darkness fully lifts.

The Gospel deepens this theme. In Matthew’s account, Jesus begins His public ministry in Galilee, fulfilling Isaiah’s prophecy of light dawning in darkness. He proclaims the nearness of God’s Kingdom and calls fishermen to follow Him. Their response is immediate—they leave their nets behind. This is not impulsive enthusiasm, but courageous trust. Stepping into the light means letting go of what is familiar, comfortable, or seemingly secure in order to follow the One who is Light itself.

Taken together, Isaiah, Psalm 27, and the Gospel reveal a single movement of faith. God promises light. The psalm teaches us how to trust that promise. The Gospel shows us what it looks like to act on that trust. In every age, discipleship requires a choice: whether fear or faith will shape our decisions.

In a world marked by anxiety, division, and uncertainty, Psalm 27 speaks with renewed urgency. It reminds us that light is not something we create for ourselves; it is a gift we receive by placing our confidence in God. To follow Christ is to walk out of darkness and into His saving presence—one faithful step at a time.

Reflection Question: Where am I allowing fear or darkness to shape my decisions instead of trusting in God’s light?

St. Catherine's Parish warmly welcomes Seminarian Deepak Bobbarala, who joins us this weekend for a time of Pastoral Immersion. Deepak arrived in Hawai'i on Thanksgiving Day 2024 from India. He has spent the past year in pastoral formation at St. John Vianney Parish on Oahu immersing himself in the life of the Catholic Church and adapting to life in the United States. During this time, he has served as a catechist in faith formation programs, ministered compassionately through bereavement ministry, and been a steady presence in the parish office, learning the many aspects of parish and school administration. He also completed three months of Clinical Pastoral Education at Queen's Hospital. We are grateful for his generous spirit and look forward to supporting him as he continues his journey of formation and discernment for the Priesthood with the Diocese of Honolulu.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Day: In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus call his first disciples. "Come after me," he calls out to the first two. "Follow me," he says to two more. We are the ones Jesus calls out to now. Today in the Sunday of the Word of God, the day Pope Francis chose to dedicate to the proclamation, the study, and the celebration of the scriptures. The call of the first disciples also reminds us of Jesus' own words. His words invite us to a deeper commitment, to one like Peter and Andrew and James and John made with him. May the word of God inspire us to enter our discipleship more deeply.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: As we begin this final week of January, it does our hearts good to hear that a great light has shone through the darkness and gloom. We realize, though, that Isaiah is speaking of the Lord, especially after Matthew writes in the Gospel that Jesus fulfills this passage. He is the light of the world, shining throughout Galilee, preaching repentance, calling disciples, proclaiming the gospel, and healing the sick. We also hear Paul urge the Corinthians to unity. In Christ, we have enlightenment, unity and salvation. On this Sunday of the Word of God, may God's word light our way.

Reflection: Have you ever noticed that sometimes the most difficult people to get along with are other members of your own faith community? Fortunately, most of the time these divisions are small but they can become serious problems when they involve major changes such as building a new church or financial appeals. One would think such contentious divisions would not happen in a faith community, but they do. It is so easy for us to believe that we are right and the other person is at best misguided or at worst just trying to tear everything apart. We all need to take a step back and remember that we all want what is best for the community. No one has the perfect solution; but, by combining the various suggestions, we can find the best course to take. However, we have to listen to each other and find where there is agreement and where compromise is needed. It takes great humility and respect for each other; but, if we are truly a Christian community, it is what we are called to do.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

-Isaiah 9:2
